LIZZO

Four years after her last gigantic successful album, 'Cuz I Love You', the singer of 'Truth Hurts', Lizzo has recently released her latest dance music video, 'About Damn Time'. It has been almost 2 months since the release of the track. It has made her fans awestruck by the energy she gave to her performance in the music video. The track was released on the 14th of April. The song created a buzz amongst her fans even before its release. Lizzo shared an Instagram post with the caption "SONG OF THE SUMMER DROPPING 4/14!" on 10th April. Fans were amazed at the unconventional way of her announcement. In the video shared on Instagram, getting out of a limo, she went on to a private plane. As she walked on the stairs in her brand new Yitty shapewear to get on the plane, the camera turned and Lizzo pulled out a "Prince at the 1991 MTV Video Music Awards". Her attire gave her fans the hints about her latest album. Soon, it made noise amongst her fans. From asking about the release date and time to best wishes for her ventures, the artist was applauded by her fans abundantly.

Madonna and Warner Brother Celebrates a Decade of Musical Hits with a 50-Song Album 'Finally Enough Love'

Legendary singer and performer Madonna is releasing a remix album based on her works by far. 'Finally, Enough Love', will be produced and distributed by Warner Brothers and will have 50 of her dance club numbers. And the album will release in segments, first one will have 16 songs in it and released on the 24th of June, 2022. And the second portion of the album will release on the 19th of August. 'Finally, Enough Love' has all the elements of Madonna and her unique musicality. Some of her double-sided numbers like 'Luck Star' with 'Holiday' and 'Angel' with 'Into the Groove', will be in the album. Apart from that the 16-song release will have songs like 'Vogue (Single Version)', 'Secret (Junior's Luscious Mix)', 'Hung Up', 'GirlGone Wild', 'Medeline', 'Deeper and Deeper'.

The Queen of pop, the Diva has curated this collection and the glimpse of the album is forecasting the charming dance number of the album. She has delivered albums like Rebel Heart in 2015 and Madam X in 2019. With this album, she will deliver 50 number ones on the billboard list.

Just over a month ago on 12th May she has Warner Brothers released a 33 seconds trailer of the album. The vibrant red and black combination along with the monochromatic accent has made the look compelling. The album will be available on every digital music platform along with a download option. Her historic number, her 50th 1st on Billboard's Dance Club Songs chart 'I Don't Search I Find' made her the first and the only artist with this much of hits in her career. Madonna said, "Dance is my first love, so every time one of my songs is celebrated in the clubs and recognized on the charts it feels like home!!"

The only absence from this album is 1987's no. 1 'Causing a Commotion'. Her Dance Club Songs no. 1 is a complete album that was released in 1987 and topped the Billboard chart in 1988. The chart was not songs specific but an album-centric chart. Each track of this album is remixed and re-mastered by the seven-time Grammy winner Mike Dean. Previously, Dean has produced Madonna's last two releases Madam X and Rebel Heart. The last august Warner brothers have announced the release of this project and now the time has come to witness her profound music and dancing tunes in her 'Finally Enough Love' as well as her 'Finally Enough Love: 50 Number Ones'.

Rock Band Dark Capricorn Rising set to Rule the Rock Music with the Song 'Land of Broken Souls'

Rock music genre is one of the most expressive genres of all time. The songs by the new age heavy rock music band Dark Capricorn Rising have unique connectivity with the listeners.

With the combination of melody and energy, they create a song that can be considered one of the most notable tracks of rock music. The song 'Land of Broken Souls' vents their inner dissatisfaction out through the song.

Rock music has been used to show disgust against any social upset by music artists in different times. The band seems to know the essence of the genre very well.

About:

Currently growing on Spotify, the group is a heavy rock band based in Canton, Michigan.

DARK CAPRICORN RISING

IN THE FORCE OF THE BLAST

The band was formed back in 2018. One thing often said about them is that they sound like "Black Sabbath on steroids".

They have released around 20 songs by now and all of them are loved by their listeners. Inherently talented the band comprises Rocky di Iacovo, Rick Young, and Justin Williams.

The songs are written by Justin Williams. The lyrics of the song, 'Land of Broken Souls', will touch your heart through the deeply-felt verses.

Musical Contribution:

Dark Capricorn Rising is dedicated to music. Their dedication is witnessed by every song they have composed till now. The fusion of electronic and organic music has created a heavy rock-metal arena that has impressed people of different ages, cultures, and values.

Their efficiency in making music is vividly conspicuous in the EP like 'Equinox' and some songs like Bureaucracy, 'Into the Night', 'God Save Ukraine', and others.

The single "Land of Broken Souls"

It is one of the best songs they have composed so far. The voice and the music evolve naturally in a climactic way. Organic and pure in every respect, the song has the power to make you their fans.

Dreamy composition accompanied by electronic and organic fingerstyles, the song is narrative of the band's own emotion. It also connects with audiences through its catchy and infectious hooks.

The fusion of modern and retro music in the background shows the band's passion for the genre. So, check the song out on Spotify.

Diljit Dosanjh Pays Homage to Sidhu Moose Wala at the Vancouver Concert

Diljit Dosanjh had recently performed at a concert in Vancouver, Canada where he paid an emotional tribute to the late Punjabi rapper Sidhu Moose Wala who was shot dead recently. The actor-singer dedicated his performance to Sidhu and sent a message to those who are trying to create a divide in the Punjabi community. He also paid homage to late kabaddi player Sandeep Singh Sandhu and Punjabi actor Deep Sidhu at the concert. The fans of the artist were very impressed with him honoring the late singer-rapper Sidhu and they expressed their thoughts on social media about the event. Diljit had shared the video of his homage on Twitter with the caption 'One Love'.

A digital banner with the message 'this show is dedicated to our brothers' is there in the background.

His performance at the concert won the hearts of the audience present there. He had also given a powerful speech to the audience requesting unity in the Punjabi community worldwide.

He also spoke about the time when Sidhu's father even took off his turban during his son's funeral. He said, 'Bapu don't take off your turban, we respect it a lot.' He further said, 'All the Punjabi community should come together and be one, we should not raise fingers at each other.'

There are many who will try to divide us.' The audience applauded when he mentioned Sidhu's name. The fans have given their reactions to Diljit's homage to Sidhu at the concert. One person wrote, 'Huge respect to you younger brother to appeal for Sidhu Moose Wala.'

Another fan said, 'Very good, Sidhu bhai deserves this. He did a lot for the Punjabi community. Now it's the Punjabi community's turn to remember him as a legend. Legends never die.'

DJ Shradan Releases a Brand-New Remix 'VASSY x Vinny Vibe – Don't Wanna Be Right (Shradan Extended Remix)'

DJ Shradan's new release 'VASSY x Vinny Vibe - Don't Wanna Be Right (Shradan Extended Remix)' was the runner-up at the remix competition on Label Radar.

Emerging EDM DJ and music producer Shradan based in Los Angeles presents his finest remix, 'VASSY x Vinny Vibe – Don't Wanna Be Right (Shradan Extended Remix)' winning hearts everywhere. He participated in a remix competition on Label Radar where Multi-platinum award-winning Australian artist VASSY offered the contestants an opportunity to remix her single, 'Don't Wanna Be Right' featuring Vinny Vibe to showcase their talent and music production skills. The multi-talented artist impressed everyone with his creative artistry and managed to secure the runner-up position in the contest. The remixed track features a future rave style that is popular at festivals and concerts.

Originally from Mumbai, the gifted artist has now settled in Los Angeles to fulfill his dream of becoming a successful music producer and DJ. He started his career by performing at the finest clubs and bars in India. He worked with DJ Suketu, India's one of the most popular DJs and music producers. He also had played for major Indian celebrities such as Akshay Kumar, Mukesh Ambani, Anil Kapoor, and Esha Deol. After moving to the US, he started playing at venues of all scales all over Hollywood and Downtown LA.

He has performed at several major events in Los Angeles as well. He has proved his brilliance on the world platform, gaining recognition from fans all over the world.

The brilliant DJ and music producer has always been attracted to electronic music. He has gained a reputation for creating unmatched and unique beats that penetrates the hearts and minds of the listeners. He has been inspired by musicians like Calvin Harris, R3hab, Tiesto, Alok, Jonas Blue, and many more.

He uses their influence to maximize the intensity of his music. The gifted artist had always been a fan of Multi-platinum award-winning artist VASSY and popular US-based DJ Vinny Vibe. So, when he got the opportunity to remix their music in the remix competition, he grabbed it gladly.

Previously known as DJ Darsh, Shradan is spreading his creativity around the world with his hit remix, 'VASSY x Vinny Vibe – Don't Wanna Be Right (Shradan Extended Remix)'. The song is his remixed version of the original by chart-topping Aussie musician VASSY and US producer and DJ Vinny Vibe.

The dynamic rhythmic arrangements incorporated with a steady future rave flow take the audience to another dimension.

Listen to the song on SoundCloud and follow him on Instagram for more.

BTS'S J-HOPE BECOMES THE FIRST SOUTH KOREAN ARTIST TO HEADLINE LOLLAPALOOZA 2022

July 31st is the date when BTS band member J-Hope will be headlining the Lollapalooza Music Festival. Rumors indicate the singer is planning for a new solo album

Lollapalooza, one of the world's largest and most important music festivals, has announced numerous new additions to its program for its upcoming 2022 event, and K-pop lovers are sure to be pleased with the additions.

J-Hope, one of the seven members of the boy band BTS, has been picked as a headliner for Lollapalooza 2022, not merely as a performer. A glance at the festival's website reveals that his name is wedged between fellow headliners Green Day and Jane's Addiction on Sunday, the final day of the festival.

J-Hope's involvement was highlighted prominently on the festival's Instagram account, which announced the news to the globe on June 7. The Instagram account remarked, "Verified We are thrilled to announce j-hope of @bts.bighitofficial will headline #Lolla 2022 on Sunday, July 31st! ? His performance will make history, cementing him as the first South Korean artist to ever headline a main stage at a major U.S. music festival."

J-Hope will perform with Metallica, Lil Baby, Dua Lipa, MachineGun Kelly, Big Sean, J. Cole, and other Lollapalooza

headliners. On Sunday, July 31, he will take command of the Bed Light Seltzer stage at 9:00 p.m., following in the footsteps of performers like The Kid Laroi and Charli XCX, who will perform on the same stage earlier that day. J-Hope will headline Lollapalooza without his bandmates, who aren't listed in the press release. While he has dominated the worldwide music market as a member of the world's seventh-largest band, he has also found time to write, record, and release songs on his own, as have several of his bandmates.

J-Hope has been rumored to be working on his sophomore solo album for years, but no official statements have been made. The fact that he'll be headlining a big festival in the world's largest music market could indicate that he's working on a new full-length album, which would help him flesh out his setlist.

Tomorrow X Together, a fellow South Korean singing cat, was also confirmed as an extra artist in an official press release published by C3 Presents, one of the businesses behind Lollapalooza. The band will perform for the first time in the United States on Saturday, July 30.

10 HOBBIES OF HIGHLY FAMED SINGER TAYLOR SWIFT OUTSIDE OF HER MUSIC WORLD

Whenever it comes to the topic of music artists, the name that buzzes a lot is Taylor Alison Swift. The 32-year-old American singer-songwriter has given so many of her musical contributions to cherish. The artist has been an inspiration among all age groups looking to excel in their respective careers. Well, today, let's have a look at some of the hobbies of the star singer other than her music life:

Cooking & Baking - Taylor is a person who loves to spend some of her precious time in the kitchen. She can randomly open any page of her cookbook to scroll through the recipe and come up with a dish with her magical touch. She sometimes also creates totally new dishes on her own. Talking about baking, the singer is fond of baking cakes and pancakes.

Antique Shopping - Taylor often goes antique shopping. She loves to dig in and find an item that can suit her interest. She has got a huge collection of antiques. Once in an interview, she said, "A new hobby of mine is... antique stores, And not just neat, organized antique stores. I really like the ones where there's so much crap to dig through, you can find absolute treasures for nothing."

Love For Animals - Any person visiting her Instagram page can get the testimony of her being a hardcore animal lover. The singer loves to watch television shows with three of her cats, namely Benjamin Button, Meredith Grey, and Olivia Benson. The singer also said that cats have played a huge role in shaping her professional life and that they have brought real joy and happiness to her life.

Songwriting As Relief - Songs are an integral part of Taylor's life., Taylor deal with songwriting not only because she is a singer but she uses it as a stress buster. It is one of the most talked-about hobbies of the American singer. She also loves writing about her daily-life observations and about her experiences.

Making Snow Globes - Not every artist is an expert in art and crafts. However, when it comes to Taylor Swift, the artist is a huge admirer of snow globes. She has shared many photos of her self-made snow globes. In 2011, the singer posted a photo of eight snow globes and jars on her Instagram page captioning it, "Home makes snow globes with friends. The whole fleet!"

Enthusiastic Learner - Taylor Swift features in many world tours and always performs with her full energy on stage. Therefore, she visits many countries in a calendar year. Once in an interview with David Letterman, the singer revealed her love for learning some phrases in new languages. She tries to learn a bit of every native language of every nation she visits. She then also showed her impressive ability to speak some sentences in Japanese.

Loves Writing - There are only a few artists and musician of the current generation who indulges themselves in writing a book. Well, Taylor has her own book written many years ago. When the singer was just 12-years-old, she wrote a 350-page novel but the book is not yet published. Taylor Swift also dreams of writing her autobiography in which she will share all the experiences that she has gone through in her whole life.

Home & Food Reality Show Lover - She is a fan of watching home and food reality shows. Barefoot Contessa and Fixer Upper are some of the shows that she likes the most. She loves to learn more about house design and renovation and all the facts related to it. Reality shows are one of the most attractive and attention-grabbing aspects of everyone's lives and, in Taylor's case, it's no different.

Fast Food Lover - Yes, Taylor is indeed a great fan of fast foods. Taylor's music video for the track "You Need To Calm Down" featured burgers and fries costume for her and Katy Perry. After the music video was released, the world came to know that she is a fan of those dishes in real life too. She once told an online news publishing firm, "I like comfort foods. I love burgers and fries, I love ice cream so much, and I love baking cookies."

Loves Dancing - Not every singer-songwriter loves to dance in their off times. Nevertheless, the American star loves dancing whenever she has some time off from her regular work. Dancing is one of her favorite hobbies of Swift that she wants to do a lot. While she might be known for her awkward dance moves, hobbies are not judged on the way people perform them but in the way they carry them in their hearts.

All About BTS' Permission to Dance on Stage: Shows, Gross Collections, and Popularity

What is BTS' Permission to Dance on Stage?

The Permission to Dance on Stage was a concert announced by one of the most popular bands amongst youth back in 2020. However, due to some Covid restrictions imposed on gatherings, the band decided to perform live from the stadium with or without audiences. The band performed some of their biggest hits in the 12-show run concerts which began on 24th October 2021 and concluded on 16th April 2022. There were a total of 11 shows, four in LA, three in Seoul, and four in Las Vegas

The Backdrop of BTS' PTD CONCERTS?

BTS, on 15th October, announced an online concert at the Seoul Olympic Stadium, starting on 24th October. Despite having the capacity of 80,000 audiences, the concert adopted pay per view technique to avoid gatherings amidst the Covid threat resurgence. Later the band also announced their tour overseas to the United States. The selected venues include the newly built SoFi Stadium in Inglewood, California, on November 27, 28, December 1, and 2.

In 2022, the K-Pop band expanded its legs with four more shows that occurred on April 8, 9, 14, and 16. The shows marked the band's first live performance for an in-person audience. All tickets for these in-person shows were sold online within a few hours of their releases. This shows the craze of the band amongst this generation of K-pop lovers.

The 1st concert at Seoul Stadium

PTD journey started in their city, Seoul. They performed at the 2019-built Seoul Olympic Stadium. Due to a calf injury, one of the members V could not participate in the choreography performances.

However, he was present on stage and participated in singing while being seated the stage. The concert was streamed in 197 countries. To enhance the visual impact, the Big Hit added a few features that allowed them to watch the live performances from 6 real-time angles.

Los Angeles show:

As per the report by Billboard, Permission to Dance on Stage Las Vegas collected the highest earnings. The gross collection of the concert is around 33.3 million USD by selling 214,000 tickets.

This made the BTS' SoFi stadium shows the highest-grossing show after the venues were reopened. BTS' performance became the seventh act to collect more than 30 million USD from a single engagement.

Las Vegas concert:

The Las Vegas tour at the Allegiant Stadium was held on the 8th, 9th, 15th, and 16th of April. Before the concert, Big Hit declared that Jin underwent a surge for his finger injury. So, his movements on the stage were curbed, and he was visible only in a few of the choreography.

How much did BTS earn from the Permission to Dance on Stage?

Well, the tour seems to be one of the most successful tours in the history of world music.

Even though it is only the sixth month of the year, BTS' PTD continues to break records. It was revealed that BTS earned more than 75 million USD from their offline concerts in 2022.

Their LA performance contributes 33 million USD alone to its overall gross collections. Billboard calculated that more than 458K audiences attended their concerts.

Lost in the Supreme Musicality of Parker J, Her Consuming Number 'Up Down' Offers Some Seamless Vibes

Being a seamless music artist Parker J is achieving heights with her profound voice and her extremely powerful musical diction.

Her voice can offer you a heavenly experience with the simplest words. Her recent release 'Up Down' will have a gravitating effect on the listeners and they will indulge more and more time in this impressing perceptive musical aura.

The day is not far when her voice will travel through borders and establish the fact once again that music is the most powerful language in the world. We share our gratitude for the exceptional talents you have, and the song you have shared with us, your urgent listeners. The experience of the song lasted a lot longer than the running. And the song has deep echoing vibrations that will nurture from within. So, we have some questions and would really appreciate it if you answer them.

Q. Say something about your music, the genre you are working or the unique nature of the song.

Parker J: I currently consider myself a pop and R and B singer, but I try not to limit my music with labels. I try to sing each song individually, based on how it feels and hopefully enjoy the outcome with my fans.

Q. Are you working with any music recording company or you are working alone to release these numbers?

Parker J: Right now, I am with Game Music Group, they helped me get started out the gate as a new artist. I would definitely recommend them for any artist just getting started in the industry.

DMR: You have shared that a family member, who has encouraged you to take this journey, can share about that inspiring incident with all the readers.

Parker J: My mom and dad said that I had a pretty voice, while I was growing up. I always enjoyed singing, but it wasn't until I was a teenager that I decided that singing was something that I really wanted to do. Fortunately, my grandfather knew a little about the music industry and helped me to get a vocal coach and things took off from there.

DMR: In your name Parker J, what does 'J' stands for?

Parker J: Thanks, I get this question often. I'm a huge Marvel fan. Parker is from the Marvel character, Spiderman's Peter Parker. I admired his inner strength, persistence, and desire to never give up. So, Parker is my first name and J stands for my middle name, Jessica.

Q. Who is your favorite music artist of all time?

Parker J: That is a difficult question. Growing up, I listened to a variety of musical genres and artists. If I had to narrow it down, I would say that it's Julian Rose Banks, who goes by the name, Banks.

Q. When was the first time you performed music publicly?

Parker J: I first performed publicly at a local talent show in Elizabeth, NJ in January of 2021. I performed with a co-worker at the time, who asked me to help him with a song. It was such a rush that I knew I wanted to do it more often.

Q. When you were young you use to take ballet lessons, do you still perform ballet?

Parker J: Unfortunately, with work, school and music, ballet got pushed to the background. Although I do not perform ballet, I still miss it.

Q. Can you share the most interesting story you have while making or shooting for the video of 'Up Down'?

Parker J: Since it was my first video, I had no idea what to expect. The director, Moe Simba had a great concept. The two things that I will always remember are watching my team carry all of the prop and video equipment down a 20-foot incline, while trying not to fall or break any of the equipment. The other thing was how cold it was. The temperature was 40 degrees out, even though I have a dress on for all of the scenes.

Q. Your charming voice has the profoundness of Adele and the seamless attractiveness of Billie Eilish, what is the secret of this ecstatic vocal quality that you possess?

Parker J: I feel that I am blessed to have this voice.

I have taken vocal lessons to try to strengthen and enhance it. I have also been blessed to work with great producers, who have brought the best out of me on the different tracks of the album.

Q. Can you please mention all the platforms where your fans can find you or your music?

Parker J: Fans can hit up my webpage at

Q. Do want to give any suggestions to your upcoming music artists so that they are better in their musical formation?

Parker J: My best advice to new artists is to surround yourself with people that you trust. There is a lot of hard work that goes into this, so you need people around you that you can trust, to help lighten the load.

DMR: Share something for your fans.

Parker J: I want my fans to never give up on their dreams, no matter what obstacles may stand in their way. There is always a rainbow at the end of a rainstorm. A huge shoutout to the fans for their love and support and for watching my YouTube video, 'Up Down'.

Her Collaboration with the Cardi B set the expectation higher:

After the release, 'Rumors', collaborated with Cardi B, and fans had higher expectations from her. The track represented the perfect comeback of Lizzo as it had her fun-evoking signatures and well-placed spikiness. The song was a huge commercial success and topped Billboard's Hot R&B / Hip-hop chart. Moreover, it also took the 4th rank on the Billboard Hot 100 charts.

The success of 'About Damn Time'

Fans have reacted positively, as the 33-yr-old singer had left no stone unturned to make the song remarkable in every respect. Within 2 months, the song reached more than 50 million views on YouTube. The song also came to the 4th position on Billboard Hot 100. Many factors bolster the success of the song. It also rose to the 10th position on the Radio Songs Chart. The song served as the lead single of her upcoming album, 'Special', to be released on 15th July, setting a burning stage for its release.

'About Damn Time' by Lizzo was released as the leading single of her highly anticipated album 'Special'. Let's see how much success it has been in its purpose.

Four years after her last gigantic successful album, 'Cuz I Love You', the singer of 'Truth Hurts', Lizzo has recently released her latest dance music video, 'About Damn Time'. It has been almost 2 months since the release of the track. It has made her fans awestruck by the energy she gave to her performance in the music video. The track was released on the 14th of April. The song created a buzz amongst her fans even before its release.

All started with her Instagram post

Lizzo shared an Instagram post with the caption "SONG OF THE SUMMER DROPPING 4/14!" on 10th April. Fans were amazed at the unconventional way of her announcement. In the video shared on Instagram, getting out of a limo, she went on to a private plane. As she walked on the stairs in her brand new Yitty shapewear to get on the plane, the camera turned and Lizzo pulled out a "Prince at the 1991 MTV Video Music Awards". Her attire gave her fans the hints about her latest album. Soon, it made noise amongst her fans. From asking about the release date and time to best wishes for her ventures, the artist was applauded by her fans abundantly.

Review on Brandi Carlile's Greek Amphitheatre Concert: A Nostalgic Journey to Good Old American Days:

American singer-songwriter Brandi Carlile was back once again with a heart-pumping performance last weekend in Los Angeles' Greek Theatre. With the weather full of moisture during a monsoon season in L.A. Carlile's show caught the attention of the full-house crowd that was present in the amphitheater.

From high to low pitches and with interchanging intensities, the singer successfully generated emotions among many in the audience. Out of the two, the first performance from the singer was pleasant to soothe the ears of all the listeners present out there. Her dates for the Los Angeles tour marked the 5th and 6th performance of a long tour that began at Seattle's Gorge on June 11.

On the other hand, the U.S. amphitheater is also booked for her upcoming concerts in late October. The vibe and the atmosphere that she brought with her mesmerizing voice seem to have enthralled all the fans sitting out in the theatre and were cheering for her. This is the first time Brandi performed after the pandemic and in a way, which went on to capture millions of hearts worldwide. During the performance, she also said "Richfresh made me a suit for tonight."

She continued by saying "I am a happy gay." Even though Brandi's latest performance was not her first Greek rodeo, she managed to perform in a way that made it look like it was her first. She also added, "this is the kind of shit you dream of." The singer also claimed that the show was her favorite in her two-decade history of visits to Los Angeles. She also remembered her first local gig, circa 2002 that took place at Hollywood's Hotel Cafe. She recalled the past memories by saying, "I'm sitting there at sound check and I look at the back of the soundboard and there's a sign that says 'Please don't fucking play 'Hallelujah' goddamn it, I'm playing it!'"

With her back-to-back performances on both the nights, she performed on Bowie's "Space Oddity" and Radiohead's "Creep." Brandi rejuvenated the crowd with her presence on stage and also urged them to sing along with her by stating, "There are nights when I need to hear this one more than sing it, and this is one of them." Initially, Friday's show started off with a brilliant and rocking performance from Tim and Phil Hanseroth. Then came Carlile with "Broken Horses" from her 2021 music album "In These Silent Days."

She continued with the same energy and charisma for "Sinners, Saints, and Thieves." The young crowd went crazy when the singer sang the song "The Story," as it was almost the highlight of the event. With the background music soaking into her voice, the atmosphere stayed absolutely silent at the beginning of the song. It was goosebumps all along right from the start of the show as she infused a rocking vibe into it. She also came on stage with 'Lucius,' the duo whose new album "Second Nature" was recently co-produced by Carlile. She also sang "Stay Gentle" with the twins.

And the moment the audience was waiting for, she sang "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" with only her on the stage. A nice and pleasant month of June with embracing weather suited the American lullaby greatly. Brandi also accompanied Marcus Mumford in an affecting post-breakup song that he and Carlile wrote and sang together while closing his record.

While Lucius started Friday's show, there was also a performance from Celisse, that started Saturday's night of the Greek. Put together, it can be said that the 4th weekend is set to go down in history as one of the most memorable ones in Los Angeles.

Rolling Stones Cancels Netherlands Show As Mick Jagger Tests Positive For Covid-19

Mick Jagger, 78, the Rolling Stone singer has now apologized to the Dutch fans on Twitter. He started developing symptoms after arriving at the Dutch capital. Mick Jagger of the Rolling Stone and two members of Ringo Starr's band also tested positive for Covid-19 on Monday, prompting both luminaries to cancel concerts.

After testing positive, Jagger, 78, canceled a tour stop in Amsterdam. Due to the diagnosis, Starr, 81, announced this weekend that his band will postpone 12 North American gigs to September. Jagger and Starr have both been vaccinated.

The statement on behalf of the band said, "The Rolling Stones have been forced to call off tonight's concert in Amsterdam at the Johan Cruijff Arena, following Mick Jagger testing positive after experiencing symptoms of Covid upon arrival at the stadium. The Rolling Stones are deeply sorry for tonight's postponement, but the safety of the audience, fellow musicians, and the touring crew has to take priority."

It continued, "The show will be rescheduled for a later date. Tickets for tonight's show will be honored for the rescheduled date. Standby for details." Jagger even apologized to the Dutch fans on Twitter by tweeting "I'm so sorry that we've had to postpone the Amsterdam show with such short notice tonight. "I have unfortunately just tested positive for Covid. We aim to reschedule the date ASAP and get back as soon as we can. Thank you for your patience and understanding. Mick."

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, older adults are more likely to become extremely ill from Covid-19, with 81 percent of Covid deaths occurring in people over the age of 65.

According to CDC, the United States recorded a seven-day average of 109,548 new Covid-19 cases on Friday. While the number of cases has climbed or remained stable across the country since April, it is still nowhere like the number of cases reported daily during the omicron surge this winter. The United States had a seven-day average of 810,524 cases at its peak in January.

Jagger and Starr aren't the only musicians who have had to cancel gigs due to illness. After admitting over the weekend that he suffers from Ramsay Hunt Syndrome, Justin Bieber canceled gigs in New York City on Monday and Tuesday.

Last year artists like Billie Eilish, Tame Impala, A$AP Rocky, Green Day, and Haim among others performed at the festival.

NIPSEY HUSSELE MURDER CASE IS COMING TO AN END

Nipsey Hussle murder accused Eric Ronald Holder Jr. who was convicted with first degree-murder; both sides delivered their closing argument on 29th June. The man who has been convicted for murdering the renowned rapper Nipsey Hussle, three years back on 31st March 2019. The closing argument was postponed a day because Holder was assaulted and in custody by fellow jail inmates on Tuesday.

The 32-year-old convict was beaten up badly after he left the Los Angeles courtroom on Monday around 4 in the evening. His public defender, Aaron Jansen said, Holder “was attacked by two inmates and beaten. He was cut with a razor in the back of his head and received three staples.

His face is swollen and his eye is swollen,” Jansen continued, “Despite the injuries, Holder is expected back in court Wednesday morning for the expected last day of evidence in his trial, the lawyer says. Closing arguments with cameras allowed in the courtroom are due to begin Thursday”. Considering that this is a high-profile case, Holder was supposed to be kept away from other inmates.

Los Angeles County Superior Court Judge H. Clay Jacke said, “Based on some unforeseen circumstances that are no fault of parties here, we won’t be in session today”. And all the Jurors were to return to the courtroom on Wednesday.

Nipsey Hussle was not only a Grammy award winner, but he was also a philanthropist and founder of two’s clothing stores. And he was killed in the parking area of The Marathon his clothing store in South Los Angeles 3.18 the noon. He was shot with 10 bullets directed to his right chest, his navel, and punctured his lungs.

Jansen has stated from the beginning that this murder is a “case about the heat of passion” as Hussle accused him of “snitching”, which is considered a sin in gang culture. And within 9 minutes of the incident Holder directed himself to Hussle without giving himself the time to “cool off”, his defender said. On the last day of the case, Jansen called Herman “Cowboy” Douglas, who was Hussle’s friend, back to the witness box to re-analyze the conversation Holder and Hussle had just before the shooting incident. And after describing the initial scenario Douglas said Hussle never used the word “Snitching” in this entire conversation.

After watching every surveillance photo and video, hearing every eye-witness and testimony, this murder was not a first-degree murder but a deed in the heat of the moment.

Depp- Heard Trial Finally Ends with Johnny Winning the Defamation Case

After six long weeks of turbulent trial, Actor Johnny Depp wins the case against Amber Heard regarding domestic abuse and defamation. Fans went crazy as the verdict surfaced. The long trial of the Depp-Heard case is finally to an end with the victory of Depp in the defamation case. Not to mention, this is the trial episode that has kept the whole world captivated for the past few weeks more than the Ukraine war.

The US jury has found Amber Heard defaming her ex-husband Johnny Depp through an article where she claimed herself as the victim of serious domestic abuse. Jurors found Mr. Depp innocent and awarded him $15m of punitive and compensatory charges. Though Ms. Heard has won three counters against Depp and was awarded $2m compensatory charges. The Hollywood stars got divorced back in 2017, however; their doomed relationship has brought more conflicts through this trial in 2022.

For the past six weeks, the court in Virginia has heard the dark side of Mr. Depp and Ms. Heard's relationship along with its unhappy ending. The polls suggested that it is perhaps the trendiest topic right now that enveloped not only Americans but the world.

Social media is flooded with millions of posts and memes regarding this trial and the case is also being televised and line streamed.

On Wednesday, the Jurors of the court found that all the statements given by Ms. Heard regarding the marriage were false and she acted quite a malice during their relationship. However, the court also found out that Mr. Depp Has previously defamed Ms. Heard in 2020.

The seven-member jury gave their verdict and as it surfaced, a chant could be heard outside of the court, "Johnny, Johnny, Johnny". Johnny Depp was unable to stay on the day of the verdict since he had 'work commitments' with his friend and talented British Musician Jeff Beck. On the evening of the verdict, Mr. Depp received a standing ovation at the Royal Albert Hall after performing with Jeff Beck. Mr. Depp said, "The jury gave me my life back. I am truly humbled." He further expressed in Latin, "Truth never perishes." Penney Azcarate, the Fairfax County Circuit Court Judge has not rewarded any punitive damages to Ms. Heard but reduced the damages for Mr. Depp. He was awarded $350,000, which leaves the total damages at $10.4m. While the world is celebrating the victory of Jack Sparrow or their loving actor Johnny Depp, Ms. Heard still claimed that she was "heartbroken" due to losing the case. She also claimed that she has lost her right as an American.

TOP 10 TIMELESS RAPPERS OF ALL TIME

Hip hop industry is one of the most popular and biggest genres in the music industry. This is the only genre where an artist can blatantly express their truest beliefs and feelings and penetrate the hearts of the listeners. Originated in the streets of Bronx, New York, the musical form was a form of protest and free expression in the beginning. The genre has gone through various changes and adopted countless new attributes, but it still maintains its fundamentals.

Rappers are considered the mouthpiece of the generations in every ear. The top rappers in the game are well-known all over the world. They have given the world some of the most inspirational and entertaining pieces of music. Here is the list of the 10 most celebrated and talented rappers of all time in the history of hip hop:

Lil Wayne

American rapper and songwriter Lil Wayne is considered one of the most influential rappers of his generation. Starting his professional music career at the age of only 12, the naturally gifted artist has come a long way making his place among the elites in the hip hop industry. He even left Elvis behind in 2012 obtaining the most Billboard Hot 100 hits of all time. His musical approach has brought a unique style into the hip-hop industry. He has also given the world a huge number of rap bangers in his incredible career. He has five Grammy Awards under his belt.

Kendrick Lamar

Kendrick Lamar entered the hip-hop music industry bringing a massive change to the scene. The techniques and styles have not much changed after the golden age of hip hop. The genre hit a standstill producing a series of similar types of songs. Kendrick Lamar introduced the incredible combination of triple and quadruple-time rhythms, multiple rhyming styles, and layered adlibs forming an exclusive soundscape that was completely new to the scene. He even became the first rapper to win a Pulitzer Prize in 2018. Some of his greatest creations are 'HUMBLE', 'Alright', 'Money Trees', 'Bitch, Don't Kill My Vibe', and more.

Ghostface Killah

American rapper and songwriter Ghostface Killah is a member of the famous hip hop group Wu-Tang Clan. After the members went their separate ways to pursue their solo careers, Killah started his solo career with the album, 'Ironman', which became an instant hit. He is well-known for coming up with the most dexterous lyrical illustrations that fitted perfectly with the message he was trying to give to the audience. Some of his finest creations are 'Shakey Dog', 'The Hilton', 'Daytona 500', 'I Can't Go to Sleep', and 'Child's Play' among many.

Lauryn Hill

Number seven on the list is popular female rapper Lauryn Noelle Hill. She is regarded as one of the greatest rappers of all time. She had a massive influence over the young audiences of her generation. She was a member of the American hip hop group Fugees and also had a successful solo career. Her 1998 solo debut, 'The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill' topped the Billboard 200 chart as soon as it was released. The album received 10 Grammy nominations and won 5 Grammys at the 41st Annual Grammy Awards. She won a Grammy Award for Best Rap Album for her hit single, 'Killing Me Softly'.

Andre 3000

Andre 3000 is most known for being a part of the hip-hop duo Outkast with Big Boi. He is one of the unmatched rappers of his time. Beginning his musical career in 2001, he quickly became one of the best because of his unique approach to the music and the exceptional structure of his lyricism.

His hit songs with Outkast 'Ms. Jackson', 'Hey Ya', 'The Way You Move', and more topped the Billboard Hot 100. The group won six Grammy Awards under its belt. Their fifth album, 'Speakerboxxx/The Love Below' has certified diamond and reached the number one spot on the Billboard 200 chart.

Nas

Nas was one of the biggest names in the New York hip-hop scene. His debut album 'Illmatic' received massive popularity and positive criticism across the world. It is known as one of the greatest albums of all time. His second album, 'It Was Written' topped the Billboard 200 for four weeks straight. He is most known for 'One Mic', 'Nas I Like', 'It Ain't Hard to Tell', 'The World Is Yours', and more. He even defeated Jay Z in the best rap war with the diss track, 'Ether'. He won a Grammy Award in 2020 for his album, 'King's Disease'.

Rakim

Rakim was one of the greatest rappers during the golden age of hip hop with Eric B forming a successful duo. He is a pioneer in introducing multisyllabic and internal rhymes into the hip-hop scene. The group's debut, 'Paid in Full' released in 1987 took the genre to the next level in terms of meaningful lyrics and unique mic techniques. He favored sitting down and taking time in creating thought-provoking lyrics rather than just improvising on the spot. He created a permanent place in the hearts of the audience with his songs, 'I Ain't No Joke', 'When I B on tha Mic', 'Know The Ledge', 'I Know You Got Soul', and many more.

Eminem

Eminem is one of the few hip-hop artists who have broken through to the mainstream defying all traditional norms. He is fluent in crafting rap verses catering to different themes. He can make you laugh, cry, and boil in anger with his lyrical masterpieces. He is called the God of Rap because of his fast and fluent delivery and extremely creative storytelling. He has given some of the best jewels of the global hip hop industry such as 'Stan', 'Mockingbird', 'Without Me', 'Cleaning Out My Closet', 'Lose Yourself', and more. He has had 15 Grammy Awards so far for his incredible musical collection.

Jay-Z

Jay Z has been one of the biggest names in the hip-hop industry in the 1990s and early 21st century. He released his debut album, 'Reasonable Doubt' in 1996 under his very own label Roc-A-Fella-Records. The album sold over a million copies in the just United States. He continued to release successful albums every year since then. His 1998 album, 'Vol 2: Hard Knock Life' was his first release to top Billboard 200 and won bringing him his first-ever Grammy as well. He has 23 Grammy Awards in his collection. Some of his greatest songs are 'Can't Knock the Hustle', 'Dear Summer', 'Public Service Announcement', and 'Guess Who's Back'.

The notorious B.I.G

The greatest rapper on our list is The notorious B.I.G, also known as Biggie Smalls. His rough childhood pushed him to express his anger, frustrations, and insecurities in the form of rap verses. His songs came straight from his heart and so, they made a powerful impact on the listeners. His 1994 debut album, 'Ready to Die' became a huge hit and went platinum easily. The album depicted the true story of his life. It showcased his incredible talent at storytelling and rhyming prowess before the global audiences. 'Juicy', 'Warning', 'Sky's the Limit', 'Mo Money Mo Problems', and more are some of the timeless hip hop numbers created by him.

These hip-hop artists have been shading light on the contemporary socio-cultural situations and struggles of a country in a way that is comprehensible to all.

H.E.R Sues MBK Entertainment for Violating the Contracts

The Oscar-winning singer-songwriter sues the production company MBK Entertainment for violating their contract. She immediately wants to take action against them. Gabriella Sarmiento Wilson, widely known as H.E.R has sued the recording label, named MBK Entertainment. This company is owned by her manager Jeff Robinson. She signed their contract at the age of 14 in 2011.

The artist has sued the company for her rights to the music catalog. She has also stated that she has taken such action for violating the business and profession code, thus for this reason she wants to break the contract from this recording label. The whole scenario is still not very clear; Jeff Robinson was the manager of Alicia Keys too. So there is nothing that can be told for now.

She has been working with this company from the very beginning of her career. All her creations are under the MBK Entertainment production company. Along with that, all of her songs are distributed by Sony Music's RCA Records. Currently, she has made a complaint in the Superior Court of the State of California in Los Angeles County.

It is coming to know that according to the documents of the contract H.E.R is an 'exclusive employee' that 'ended the later of 15 months after May 19, 2011, or 12 months after the commercial release in the United States of Wilson's first album under the contract, and up to five additional Option Periods of more than one year each'.

H.E.R also says that it has helped her immensely to be a successful singer but she also said 'past the current date [May 19, 2011] and potentially until much longer, as each Option Period is keyed to a commercial release by MBK of a record album'.

Along with that, she added 'Robinson caused his own lawyers to represent Wilson in the negotiation of subsequent contracts, including publishing and touring agreements...

those lawyers took 5% of the deals they negotiated, but did not have a written fee agreement or a conflict waiver signed by Wilson, and said that they performed the services 'as a favor' to their client Robinson who was paid 20% commission for each of those deals'.

At last this 24-year-old only asking the law authorities to 'restitution and disgorgement of funds according to proof; for costs of suit incurred herein; and for such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper' after the violation of the contract.

Music Streaming Platforms are making a Huge Impact on the Music Industry

Lorde Came Up with Her Blonde Hair in The Festival of Glastonbury

Lorde took the stage of Glastonbury with her new blonde hair. Along with entertaining the crowd with her music, the artist has shared an important fact with her fans.

Lorde performed on the Glastonbury stage in her new attire. The singer-performer set the stage on fire with her new blonde look. The artist changed her hair from brown to bright blonde and stunned the audience. This 25-year-old singer took the stage at Glastonbury Festival on 27th June 2022.

She completed her new look with a lilac corset bodysuit, a red ribbon on one of her wrists, red stockings, and pair of black sneakers. The gorgeous look of her has astonished everyone. The whole hairstyle has been done by the prolific hairstylist Cameron Rains. The middle part and effortless waves of her hair have given an aesthetic look to the performance at the music festival.

This artist has not only surprised everyone with her hair reveal but has also taken the stage for a big issue. She called out the U.S Supreme Court's decision to knock over Roe v. Wade, which has granted women's right to an abortion in every state. She said to her fans 'Wanna hear a secret, girls? Your bodies were destined to be controlled and objectified since before you were born. That horror is your birthright'. She has also added 'But here's another secret. You possess ancient strength, ancient wisdom – wisdom that has propelled every woman that came before you. That wisdom is also your birthright'.

Lorde continued her speech with 'I ask you today, make accessing that wisdom your life's work. Because everything depends on it. F – the Supreme Court'.

For the 'Mood Ring' music video, this artist has tried out a different thing with her new blonde hair. She stated 'I sort of underwent something of a transformation for this video because the song is satirical, I was writing from the perspective of a character who is not me'.

This artist is very particular about her style when she is about to state something on a serious note. Her fun style choices and outspoken monologues have been appreciated by everyone.

In an interview, Lorde has said 'Being bold is vital because people are only going to listen to you if you speak up'. She has also said, 'It's hard for me – I'm shy, I'm a shy girl. But, you always regret not being bold, and you very rarely regret toughening up and doing it'.

With this unique choice, the artist is reaching out to many.

The album created buzz effectively on YouTube soon after its release. His fans have once again been mesmerized by his performances.

Fans are Planning to Attend this Year's Glastonbury Festival Ignoring all the Travel Disruptions

England, Scotland, and Wales's transportation system has been interrupted by rail strikes. But Glastonbury ticket holders are finding ways to reach Worthy Farm. The recently developed tension between rail union RMT and employers regarding various issues has led to rail strikes after decades. The strike was announced on 7th June just two weeks prior to the Glastonbury festival.

But this situation hasn't stopped music lovers from all around England to visit the festival. The gates to the festival opened their gates on Wednesday. More than 200,000 will descend on Worthy Farm to attend the 2022 event. The main attractions of the show are evergreen Beatles singer Paul McCartney, Billie Eilish, and Kendrick Lamar.

On Tuesday only 20% of the trains are running and more strikes were planned for Thursday and Saturday. And the festival starts today on 22nd June and continues for five as per the tradition and will conclude on 26th June. Since the inauguration of the festival, it has been held in Pilton a village in Somerset, England.

And people are taking any routes to make them reach the farm for this annual festival. A fan and six-time attendee of Glastonbury, Sarah Hogg said that she is nervous about the trip and she is hoping that she reaches the event on time. She has booked a seat on a train on Thursday morning to attend this festival, but the train got canceled so she had to leave on Wednesday evening and maybe ask a friend to stay for the night before the festival starts.

She said, "It's made me incredibly nervous about it and it's just added stress."

It wasn't that long ago when they announced that this [the strike] was all happening, at a point where everyone who's going to the festival had already planned how to get there." She added, "I'm not particularly happy about it, but come hell or high water I will get myself to Worthy Farm." Continuing, "Is it worth the added stress and cost? Of course." "It's my favorite place on this planet," Sarah concluded.

Transport secretary Grant Shapps is willing to intervene and resolve the matters as early as possible. Hence, Prime Minister Boris Johnson has shared regarding the passengers to "stay the course", adding that the proposed reforms are for their benefits and interests only.

From gate crashing to upholding 300,000 audiences in 1994 Glastonbury has seen many incidents of fandom and this surely will add another feather. For more updates check out Google News.
