

DAILY MUSICROLL

ONLINE MUSIC MAGAZINE

CARDI B

Angry Cardi B throws the microphone at a concertgoer at the Las Vegas Show

MTV

MTV Video Music Awards has announced the Performers for This Year

TAYLOR SWIFT

Taylor Swift's Concert Caused Seismic Activity in Seattle

MICHAEL JACKSON

Let's Celebrate The Birth Anniversary Of The King Of Pop

Shakira

returns at the VMA while winning the iconic Video Vanguard Award

GET YOUR MUSIC FEATURE IN OUR MUSIC MAGAZINE

ARTIST INTERVIEW

With years of experience, we are offering artist interview services for siners, bands, musicians like you and post it on our website. Our team of experts will review your music and gather information about you then we will make an interview question set and send you, once you answer those questions and send back to us we will post it on our inte view section.

Daily Music Roll is offering : hip hop, rap, rock, electronic, pop and other music blog submission and music news release service Also get Featured on Google news

V FROM BTS HAS COME UP WITH HIS SOLO DEBUT, RELEASED ON SEPTEMBER 8

Read more Page No. 44

Cardi B

Angry Cardi B throws the microphone at a concertgoer at the Las Vegas

06

Taylor Swift

Concert Caused Seismic Activity

07

Michael Jackson

Birth Anniversary

18

Lady Gaga

I Will Miss My Friend Forever

19

BLACKPINK

DDU-DU DDU-DU

20

08 MONDAY JUSTICE
Monday Justice is Setting the Stage on Fire With the Track

09 GIGI P RIVERA
Gigi P Rivera is Ushering Her Creative Charm in the Track

10 MIRZA SELIMOVIĆ
Let's Celebrate the Music Journey of Mirza Selimović

13 BOULDERCREST
Bouldercrest Baby Offers a Dope Hip-Hop Experience

14 STEREO GLOW
Enjoy the Flawless Musical Blends of Stereo Glow in

15 ALLI CAZAAM
Young Star Alli Cazaam Is Ready to Embark on Her

17 MTV
MTV Video Music Awards has announced the Performers for

21 NEWJEANS
NewJeans' 'Get Up' Leaves Behind 'Barbie' to Become No.

22 BEYONCÉ
Beyoncé Performs in D.C After FedEx Field Issues Shelter-in-

23 OLIVIA RODRIGO
just Announced the Release of the 'Guts' single 'Bad Idea

26 DOJA CAT
Doja Cat's 'Paint The Town Red' Is a Perfect Concoction Of Dark

27 CHARLIE PUTH
Charlie Puth's New Single, a Sexy, Seductive Track 'Lipstick'

28 MILEY CYRUS
'Used to Be Young': The Latest Song has been dropped by

29 SELENA GOMEZ
'THE QUEEN LEFT NO CRUMBS' – fans celebrate as

30 AR RAHMAN
AR Rahman Speaks On Nepotism In A New Interview,

31 DOJA CAT
Doja Cat Is All Set To Release Her Newest Album 'Scarlet'

32 HYBE
HYBE And Geffen Records Are Launching A New Girl Group

33 HOUSE OF BLUES
House Of Blues Music Forward Foundation Hosting Fundraising

36 PROGRESSIVE ROCK
Find Out the Top 10 Progressive Rock Bands

38 NICKY MINAJ
Her All-New Single 'Last Time I Saw You'

40 ARIANA GRANDE
The Grammy-Winning Singer, Ariana Grande Continues Her

Shakira

returns at the VMA while winning the iconic Video Vanguard Award

24

41 TAYLOR SWIFT

The Viral Security Guard from Taylor Swift's 'Eras Tour' Got

42 JONAS BROTHERS

Jonas Brothers win hearts once again as they dedicate

44 V

V from BTS Has Come Up With His Solo Debut,

46 NU-METAL ELDERS

Nu-metal Elders Still Got Their Zest: Limp Bizkit is

47 READING FESTIVAL

The 2023 Reading Festival Is Enhanced Even More With A

Drake
Keep Your Bras On

48

Victoria Monét
'JAGUAR II'

43

Hozier
'Unreal Unearth'

45

SHAKIRA RETURNS

Well, if you are wondering what Shakira, Beyoncé, and Michael Jackson have in common, it was only a Super Bowl halftime show until last week but now Shakira is officially receiving the award by being a part of the Video Vanguard Award recipients club. The stellar pop icon will be receiving the Video Vanguard Award at the MTV Video Music Awards which is all set to take place on September 12, Tuesday at 8 p.m. ET/PT. MTV has announced that she will be also performing a live broadcast for the first time after a long time. The fans went crazy as the last she appeared was back in 2006 when she celebrated the debut of "Hips Don't Lie" along with Wyclef Jean. However, it is not the only one! The 'Hips Don't Lie' singer has been also nominated for four other awards at this year's MTV Video Music Awards. She was nominated for Artist Of The Year and Best Collaboration for the track 'TQG' with KAROL G and also Best Latin for both the tracks 'Acróstico' and 'TQG'. It is not new but Shakira has always been a part of many Music Awards and at MTV, she has become quite a familiar face. With four wins before and around 30 nominations, her consistency is pretty good!

34. TOP 10 MUSIC

Top 10 Music of September 2023

Subscribe to get free Digital

MAGAZINE

Delivered at your inbox for

FREE

Enter your email address

SUBSCRIBE

Angry Cardi B throws the microphone at a concertgoer at the Las Vegas Show

A concertgoer has filed a report to the police against Cardi B claiming that she was "struck by an item that was thrown from the stage," at the Las Vegas show. The video has already been viral through social media, however, things have escalated. A concertgoer from the last show in Las Vegas has filed a report against rapper Cardi B for throwing the microphone. In the video, it can be seen that the fan splashed a drink at her first and then Cardi B threw the microphone back.

The Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department said on Monday that a person filed a police report on Sunday alleging battery, claiming she was "struck by an item that was thrown from the stage." Though the police department has not mentioned Cardi's name the report matches with the incident that is getting viral through the internet. The location of the alleged incident matches the venue as well.

The incident took place on Saturday and the video got much attention over the internet. In the viral video on social media, the 30-year-old rapper could be seen hurling a microphone at an unruly concert-going member after the person splashed their beverage on her while the performance was ongoing at Drai's Beachclub on the Las Vegas Strip.

The Police statement on Monday said that no arrest or citations had been issued, and "no further details will be provided at this time." The spokesperson for Cardi B also did not request for comment.

This is not new but many rash incidents like Saturday night are taking place recently where the artists have been struck by different kinds of objects while performing on stage. In recent times, Bebe Rexha was greatly injured when a fan threw a cell phone at her face, Drake also called out a fan for throwing a vape on the stage, someone tossed their dead mother's ashes up onto P!nk's stage while performing.

Cardi B throws microphone at audience member who threw a drink at her.

Similarly, Kelsea Ballerini was hit by an object in the middle of her song, Harry Styles was found wincing in pain when someone threw some mysterious object, and Lil Nas X also received a sex toy thrown at him during his performance. Performances etiquettes are greatly compromised and that is pushing the artists on their edges.

In case of Cardi B, she was in the middle of the action to deliver her hit track "Bodak Yellow (Money Moves)", the song that spent three weeks at No. 1 on the Billboard Hot 100 chart in 2017; and suddenly, she was splashed by the liquid from a cup of a concertgoer.

In the video, it is evident that Cardi turned very angry and threw the microphone down in the crowd, and proceeded to yell but was soon stopped by the crew.

Taylor Swift's Concert Caused Seismic Activity in Seattle

Taylor Swift's fans have literally experienced 'Shake It Off' in her Seattle concert. The Western Washington University seismologist Jackie Caplan-Auerbach has said that the seismic activity is equal to a 2.3 magnitude earthquake. Currently, this incident is being referred to as the 'Swift quake' by the Swifties.

The seismologist has said to the media that 'I grabbed 10 hours of data, from when doors opened to well after I thought the audience had gone home, and I just plotted them out to see how did the ground shake'. She has also stated that Taylor Swift's 'Era' concert has experienced a situation like the 'Beast quake' of 2011.

She has also added 'I don't really want to get into a snickering match between Seahawks fans and Swifties, but I will say Swifties have it in the bag...This was much bigger than the Beast Quake in terms of the raw amplitude of shaking, and it went on for a whole lot longer, of course'. After this incident, many seismologists have said this is a 'quite common' thing to happen when a large number of people are coming to a place and creating a vibration. In places like music concerts, due to the dancing, it can cause these things. Professor James Hammond has also added 'A 2.3 -magnitude earthquake is quite small though, so I expect it would only be felt quite close to the concert...relatively small amount of energy released'. But he has also confirmed that this kind of earthquake cannot cause any serious problems or damage to the earth.

He has also said, this kind of thing often happens in sports matches and music concerts. It only happens when a huge number of audiences come together in one place and create a vibration, only then it could happen. Jackie Caplan-Auerbach has said 'I collected about 10 hours of data where rhythm controlled the behavior.

The music, the speakers, the beat. All that energy can drive into the ground and shake it'.

In this case, Taylor hasn't spoken yet, but she has admitted 'Seattle that was genuinely one of my favorite weekends ever...Thank you for everything. All the cheering, screaming, jumping, dancing, singing at the top of your lungs'.

In the coming September, there would be a show of Beyoncé, which the seismologist is recommending to reduce the number of audience.

MONDAY JUSTICE IS SETTING THE STAGE ON FIRE WITH THE TRACK 'AMEN'

Join the music ballad with the talented artist Monday Justice. This proficient artist is showcasing his creative charm by creating a wide array of music. He is trying to garner worldwide music enthusiasts with his diverse range of music. This artist is taking the initiative to come up with different kinds of songs with each new release. This particular trait is assisting him to reach out to more audiences in a short time span. He is an independent artist who likes to make music on his own. He single-handedly creates, records, and also produces the soundtracks. It is his unique method of music presentation that has kept him different from all the other musicians.

Hails from the United States, this artist is currently generating a sensation among listeners with his latest song 'Amen'. The lyrically and musically enriched track is garnered many ears from all around the world. Its intense and subtle tune has added a whole different charm to the track. Along with that, his flawless deliverance is another trait, which is getting a lot of appreciation from everyone. His refreshing musical creation is helping him to create an individual identity in the music industry.

This artist likes to do experiments with his soundtracks and that is one of the major aspects of his songs. That is why, all of his soundtracks are very much more diverse than each other. It is one of the major reasons for accumulating a large number of audiences. He is an Afrobeat musician but he has tried his hands on various other genres too. In his creations, listeners get to listen to pop and R&B music too. All these have churned out the true flavor of his songs and gained a lot of attention from everyone. This artist never leaves any room for disappointment, which is bringing him even more growth in his career.

Monday Justice is a prolific artist who is establishing himself in the music industry at a slow and steady pace. He has given a lot of songs in his career apart from 'Amen'. Some of his other mesmerizing soundtracks are 'Overtime on you', 'West Side', 'Can't get enough', and 'Tell Me You Love Me'.

All of his soundtracks are available on the music streaming site YouTube. Thus, listeners can hear out his songs on this platform. Along with that, one can also follow him on Instagram, Facebook, and TikTok to get further updates on his upcoming musical projects.

Gigi P Rivera is Ushering Her Creative Charm in the Track 'Mi Naah Stop'

Join the music ballad with the immensely talented reggae artist Tanesha P Rivera, widely known as Gigi P Rivera. This songwriter and singer is creating a sensation among all music enthusiasts with her exceptional pieces of music.

She has garnered many music enthusiasts from all around the world by showcasing her creative talent. Being an independent artist, she has never left any room for disappointment for her listeners. And that is what helped her accumulate more number of global listeners in a short time span. This prolific musician has shown her talent by composing, recording, and producing soundtracks of her own.

In recent days, this artist is gaining much attention from all the listeners with her magnificent soundscape 'Mi Naah Stop'. In this soundtrack, she has collaborated with the phenomenal singer Treisha Williams. With the unique talents, this song has become an outstanding musical creation that no one has ever experienced.

This artist has also amazed all the listeners with her intriguing music flow and attractive lyricism. Both have added a whole new flavor to the soundtrack, which is why she has garnered a large number of listeners.

Rivera has amazed everyone with her innovative creations. This artist likes to create different kinds of songs. And that is what assists her to create a whole new identity among everyone. Her diverse musical presentation has also shown her creative aura. In addition to all this, she has also amazed her audience by creating soundtracks with attractive tunes and fascinating lyricism. The subtle flow of music has enhanced the essence of the genre in every aspect.

This artist also tends to create songs that are much more inclined toward spirituality. With this particular trait, she is getting the opportunity to cater her songs to even wider audiences.

Gigi P Rivera is a renowned artist in the music industry. She has given a lot of songs in her music career and keeps on entertaining her listeners. Some of her exemplary pieces of music apart from 'Mi Naah Stop' is 'Free', 'Big up Mi God', 'I Love You (feat. George Rivera)', and 'I Call You Friend'. All these soundtracks are available on music streaming sites like YouTube and Apple Music, and Spotify. Therefore, listen to her songs on these platforms to experience the brilliant reggae music.

Along with that, follow her social media platforms like Facebook, Instagram, and Twitter to get all the updates on her upcoming musical ventures.

Let's Celebrate the Music Journey of Mirza Selimović and His Flawless Inspirational Musical Styles

Exceeding the heights of popularity Mirza Selimović is riding the chariot of melodious fueled by his exceptional talents. This young regional music artist is known for his boundless musical vibes and highly engaging musical supremacy.

The soothing melodies along with his charming presence made his song more enticing for every music lover. His musical grace and the elegance of his musical vibes have made every music lover fall for his seamless craft.

DMR: Let us first congratulate you for your tremendous success on your music releases; it has been a treat to witness your music. So, when you first thought about getting into the musical world?

Mirza: Firstly, I would like to thank you for such kind words. Since I was a little boy I have been dreaming of becoming a singer. I often say it as a joke that it's the only thing I can do. While I was in elementary and high school, music festivals and the stage became a part of my everyday life. Later on I went on to pursue a different career- I actually graduated from the Faculty of Civil Engineering - but the love for music was stronger than anything else.

DMR: What has been your musical inspiration that has driven you to enter this world of musical supremacy?

Mirza: I find inspiration in many domestic and foreign performers and bands. I actually learned how to sing by singing along with our famous singers from the Balkans, such as Zdravko Colic, Djordje Balasevic and many others. In addition, I have always greatly admired the music and work of Freddie Mercury, as well as the magnificent vocals of Steve Perry.

DMR: Your music is truly amazing to witness but every growth needs proper support and for you what has been your backbone when it comes to supporting your growth?

Mirza: In my opinion, the important thing for any person in music and showbusiness is the support given by the closest people. Family is the foundation of every single thing and something that inspires you and provides an incentive to be better, but also to remain with both feet on the ground. My friends have always been there for me to give me some well-intended advice and constructive criticism, i.e. they are mainly the ones who are the first to hear some new projects I work on.

DMR: Your musical talents has been discovered when you were in school and since then you have been performing, this journey from being discovered as a young prodigy to one of the most successful music artists of this age.

Mirza: My beginnings were not easy; it takes a lot of sacrifice and persistence, but I have been always striving to reach my goals. Winning a prestigious competition in Serbia was wind at my back concerning my future career. While competing you represent yourself with somebody else's songs, in your own manner, but, afterwards, it is actually really important to find your own style and way forward.

DMR: You have a huge fan base on both YouTube and Spotify, what has been your success mantra to keep going when things were not that easy to handle?

Mirza: I think that when you make music out of love, things simply come to you naturally. I've never been obsessed with figures, I simply do what I love and know. There have been many difficult and hard moments, especially at the beginning of my career when you are about to establish yourself as a singer and create your own unique style. However, I have always moved step by step and never allowed something to discourage me. I think that you need to be yourself and have quite a strong personality to survive in the music business.

DMR: Your music has a very fresh way to reach people, are you willing to try anything new, some other forms or genres of music?

Mirza: Music is a living thing, and just like the language it keeps changing and some new genres and sounds appear. I am quite open to a new sound, but always trying to stay true to myself. Emotions are for me the driving force when it comes to music.

DMR: Your music often unites people and your music motifs are bound to bring people together, is this a conscious decision, or does this unique flavor happens to be in your tracks naturally?

Mirza: Music has been connecting people since forever. I think it represents the unconscious part of us, and very often, even if we don't understand the language and the lyrics, we still feel the energy and emotions conveyed by the artist. This is where the magic of music lies.

DMR: Share with us about your all-time favorite track that has made you fall for this musical craft.

Mirza: Don't stop believin'- Journey. I have been deeply touched by this song in different periods of my life. I remember when I was a kid that I was always happy to hear it on the radio. Its message is great and for me it is the anthem for the whole life.

DMR: If someone is completely new to the music of Mirza Selimović, which should they start from? Any specific recommendation would be great.

Mirza: The songs "Imas me", "Ti i ja", "Bolis me" have been the milestones of my career so far.

DMR: Do you have anything to say to the aspiring artists, and how they too can achieve their goals?

Mirza: Above all, it takes a lot of desire and love towards music. There is no guarantee and a proven recipe for success, but the important thing is to accept yourself for who you really are and to find your own sensibility and genre. It is nice to have role models, but you shouldn't compare yourself with others. I think there is a place for everybody, and that each person will have their own moment to shine.

DMR: Music is a universal language. Do you think your music is strong enough to break national barriers?

Mirza: I think that music breaks down all the barriers, mine being no exception, and that's actually the true beauty of doing this job.

DMR: You come from the Balkans, Eastern Europe, can you tell me something about the music from that region?

Mirza: In our region there is a mix of different music styles and sounds. Different cultures have definitely left their mark on the music of this area.

WE OFFER PROFICIENT PROMOTIONAL STRATEGIES TO TALENTED STARS
COMPOSE LYRICS AND ROCK THE STAGE WITH MORE LISTENERS COUNT

OUR SOUNDCLOUD

PROMOTION PACKAGE INCLUDES

Create a buzz on Social Media platforms with 24000+ followers
Content Marketing and sharing PRESS RELEASE, MUSIC BLOG, REVIEW AND INTERVIEW
REPOST YOUR MUSIC - UP TO 350000+ SOUNDCLOUD FOLLOWERS

Bouldercrest Baby Offers a Dope Hip-Hop Experience With His Banger 'ACTIVE'

Rapping is not just words and bars but also an act that involves everything and Bouldercrest Baby has proved his latest musical creation. This rapper has an amazing job in crafting the latest song 'ACTIVE' which offers a unique taste of new-age hip-hop. The banger is masterfully produced to make sure there is no room for error. Absolutely flawless and greatly engaging, the digital grooves in the track are quite hooky and do not fail to captivate listeners around the globe. Baby has a slumberous vocal essence which makes his deliverance sound more unique and engaging as well. The bars in the track show his witty world play and the ability to envelop everyone even if listened to once. The song comes with a clock-time of 2 and a half minutes only yet offers deep impact even after it ends. Truly, it is a musical treat for all kinds of listeners around the world.

The track 'ACTIVE' has also been released with an official music video which is currently gaining much attention from viewers as well as hip-hop lovers around the world. In the music video, Baby could be seen getting into the groove while two books are set behind with the meaning of the words 'Hustle' and 'Execution'. With an explanation of a noun and a verb; the music video embraces the rapping community as well as the culture of hustle and grind. It also focuses on the fact that execution is important. The aesthetically designed setting in the video also shows some smoke around along with a diamond-studded pendant dangling from the neck. His initials for his artist name are also there on the pendant and that is BB. The swanky representation shows how ambitious and successful the rapper is even though this is just the beginning of his career. He signed under the label Signed 2 The Streets Empire and that is also visible at the beginning of the music video. Hailing from Mississippi, Bouldercrest Baby is one of the most talented and seasoned rappers who is not setting an example but being a role model for emerging rappers as well. He has also recently performed in Houston Texas. With zeal and determination, Baby is looking forward to coming up with more exquisite hip-hop projects in the coming days of his career. Follow him on YouTube to check his musical works and videos. The rapper is also available on Facebook and Instagram.

Enjoy the Flawless Musical Blends of Stereo Glow in Their Engaging Release 'Dig It Up'

For those who like to have their adventurous side honed with sparkling charming music while they are embarking on a new road, Stereo Glow will have the best thing for you. Their music catalog is brimmed over with dreamy and adventurous sounds that will cast an enthralling spell on you. Their 'Dig It Up' is a great way to introduce their music to your daily life. But their music is so diverse that, few of their songs can be the sweetest sources of joy and nourish your soul, while they too have explosive shadowing the world with their musical alchemy.

Stereo Glow is all about the musical language of Jessica Jellen and Mark Burke and their inspiring musical bond. Sensual lyrics combined with intriguing music, make their songs more enjoyable. They strive to expose the roots of nostalgia and experiment with the proportion of natural and synthetic reverberations. With the ecstatic vocals of Jessica Jellen and the instrumental mastery of Mark Burke, this musical duo is all about the seamless blends of acoustic and electric guitar, synth, and bass, followed by their heart-melting lines. They deliver layered vocals with guitar combination and this could transport the listeners to experience the unexpected with their seamless musical aura.

The duo originated during the time of the Pandemic and since then they have been delivering some of their most impressive releases of all time. From their perfect union of Arena rock styles, they have released some absorbing songs.

They have just released their latest album 'Where There Are No Words' which has 10 incredibly arranged numbers. From chilling harmonies to experimental rhythms, their musical catalog is filled with surprises.

Some of their intriguing releases were 'Captivation', 'Lee Runs Free', 'The Next Ice Age', 'Soaking In', 'Party Rumble', and 'The Rain Became an Ocean'. This critically acclaimed melodic rock duo is breaking the mold with their boldest liberating energy.

With each of their song, they strive to push the barrier a little further with innovative ideas and engulfing sounds. For their 'Dig It Up', Jellen and Burke have spent a good amount of time penning down this masterpiece. The prolific nature of this number is not just in its consuming melodic nature but also in its relevant narrative.

The thought-provoking lyrics, catchy beats, and memorable choruses have worked so beautifully that the song will rejuvenate and engage every music lover across the world.

One can find them on Spotify, YouTube, SoundCloud, Instagram, Facebook, and the Official Website.

Young Star Alli Cazaam Is Ready to Embark on Her Musical Journey With the Latest Track 'Alakazaam!'

Join an energetic techno journey with Brooklyn rising star Alli Cazaam who has come up with her brand new single 'Alakazaam!', a magical single available on Spotify and YouTube.

Thirteen-year-old Alli Cazaam is ready to set the bar high with her latest musical work 'Alakazaam!'. It is a dance/techno track that is comprised of high-octane energy. Somewhere between the retro synths and a funky bass groove; the track offers an enticing musical experience that can be enjoyed by the music lovers with all kinds of taste. This creative also consists of some vocal input that feels like Alli talking or narrating in the background. The slumberous, spell-like lyrical approach along with an ethereal music composition make this track true magic just like its name suggests. 'Alakazaam!' is referred to as an invocation to magical powers this track is a medium of those powers. Born on October 31, 2009; Alli is only in her teen years yet she is making some major progress on her musical journey that just started. The song 'Alakazaam!' was released on August 18, 2023, and currently, it is gathering a lot of attention from musical lovers around the globe. Her knack for music developed in her childhood and now has become a singer, musician, and dancer as well. She received the unique middle name 'Cazaam' as her father loves magic. Her real-life Godfather Paul Daniel "Ace" Frehley is the original co-founder of KISS.

Currently, Alli Cazaam is working hard on her upcoming musical album 'INCANTATION' which is scheduled to be released later in this year under the label of Zebula Records. Born in Brooklyn, New York, this highly talented teen artist spreading her musical aura around the world and this is just the beginning. She is looking forward to offering more exciting musical projects in the coming days of her highly progressive musical career. Alli has a knack for Halloween as it is her birthday and this young artist already donating to charity. There is an Alli Cazaam Foundation that contributes every year to schools nationwide. The foundation helps young students with donations in various sectors.

Alli has an official website from where her fans can get to about more information. It can also help the fans purchase various merch products from the virtual store. Currently, she is not participating in any upcoming event however, she is willing to do some soon in the coming days.

Stay tuned and follow her on Spotify and YouTube to learn more about her music. She is also available on Instagram and Twitter. Follow her over there for more updates.

PRESS RELEASE WRITING

AND DISTRIBUTION COMPANY

Get to post your 1st PR for absolutely free (Freemium Services)

Music press releases for the artist as well as other PR campaigns regardless of the industry

Customized Press Release writing service

Guaranteed placements over 195+ top newswire and reputed media outlets

Professional PR distribution, syndication, and promotion

SEO benefits along with Google News and search engine optimization

Highly affordable PR packages along with seasonal discount offers

24*7 active helpdesk to empower every client

MTV Video Music Awards has announced the Performers for This Year

The MTV Video Music Awards is going to take place just a few weeks after and MTV has announced the artists' names who will perform on the show. The authority has declared that Demi Lovato, Karol G, Stray Kids, and Måneskin will surely perform on the stage of the MTV Video Music Awards 2023. The MTV VMA will take place at the Prudential Center in New Jersey on the 12th of September at 8 p.m. ET/PT. It will be the third time when Demi Lovato is going to perform at the MTV VMA. It is coming to know that the artist will perform her new album, named 'REVAMPED'.

On the other hand, Karol G is also going to perform at the MTV VMA, which has created excitement among everyone. It will be the very first time when Karol is going to perform at the MTV VMA. Currently, she is on Mañana Será Bonito Tour in North America. Along with this, it also has been confirmed that the artist will perform her latest creation Mañana Será Bonito (Bichota Season) at the VMA. All of her fans are very much thrilled to see her on the stage for the Video Music Award for the first time.

Along with this, Stray Kids are also ready to make their debut at the MTV VMA 2023. This boy band will perform their latest single 'S-CLASS' from their new album '5-STAR'. Audiences are very much eager to see them on the stage for the first time. This band has shown their talent in various ways. They have always come up with a wide range of diverse music. Thus, everyone is waiting for their performance at the VMA 2023.

Måneskin is another band that has gained huge popularity over the last few years. This band has always mesmerized everyone with their innovative rock soundscapes. And this time, the band is all ready to set the stage on fire. Last year, Måneskin won the best alternative award. Along with that, they have also performed last year. This is why, audiences are even more excited to see them performing this year.

This year all these four performers are not only going to perform but they are also nominated for various kinds of awards. Therefore, audiences are waiting to see who will bag how many awards this year.

MICHAEL JACKSON: LET'S CELEBRATE THE BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE KING OF POP

Coming from a family of music lovers, Michael Jackson was born on the 29th of August 1958 in Gary, Indiana, in the US. He was the sixth child of his parents, Joseph and Katherine Jackson. And while growing up Joe Jackson formed a band with his children and named it The Jackson Five in 1964. From his early days of singing, he showed the potential to become one of the leading pop music artists of all time.

He was not just a singer or a music performer; he was a great songwriter, dancer, and philanthropist as well. From his iconic dance move, 'Moonwalk' to his 'Earth Song', this man was a brilliant artist and great human being.

Jackson Five Days

Since the amateur days of his performance, he has shown a tremendous ability to perform flawlessly. His singing ability was extremely good, and by then people had started noticing his dancing ability as well. His smooth dancing styles were extremely appreciated from that age. Due to excellent singing skills and brilliant dancing aptitude with an impressive stage presence, he attracted the attention of Taylor, one of the eminent pianists of all ages. By 1968 the Jackson Boys received support from the Apollo Theatre in New York City, after the prominent presence of the singer Diana Ross.

Inception of the Star

In 1975, ending their time with Motown, the Jackson Five they continued as The Jacksons started recording with Epic Records. The group released several albums and it was prominent by then that Michael Jackson was going to be the leading man of the show.

In 1979 he focused on his solo career and released his first solo album, Off the Wall. Even though, the Jacksons were performing and releasing their music internationally, but, the success of his solo venture exceeded all expectations. This was the inception of a star who eventually became the 'King of Pop'.

The world was and still is enthralled by this artist as he continued to charm everyone with his music, dance, and his mere presence. On June 25, 2009, the world lost this star but he is still alive in the hearts of his million or billion fans. He has been one of those artists whose creations are timeless, and this person has iconic presence is extremely inspiring.

On the occasion of his birthday, the world is paying respect to this evergreen 'King of Pop'. Celebrating his music is the only way to pay homage to him. And his immense amount of contribution will make people celebrate him even after centuries.

'I Will Miss My Friend Forever' Lady Gaga Says In Memory of Tony Bennett

Following his death Gaga wrote, “I will miss my friend forever.” In that lengthy post, she stated her emotions meticulously in words on Sunday night. She wrote, “I will miss singing with him, recording with him, talking with him, being on stage together. With Tony, I got to live my life in a time warp. Tony & I had this magical power. We transported ourselves to another era, modernized the music together, & gave it all new life as a singing duo. But it wasn’t an act. Our relationship was very real.”

Bennett was diagnosed with Alzheimer’s disease in 2016, and we have lost him to this now. And his last public appearance was with Gaga for their “One Last Time: An Evening With Tony Bennett and Lady Gaga” concert at the Radio City Music Hall in August 2021. The pair released two timeless albums together, one in 2014 and another in 2021. Both of their collaborations, 2021’s ‘Love for Sale’ and 2014’s ‘Cheek to Cheek’ are packed with their boundless musical skills and genius.

Gaga said, “Sure he taught me about music, about showbiz life, but he also showed me how to keep my spirits high and my head screwed on straight. ‘Straight ahead,’ he’d say. He was an optimist, he believed in quality work AND quality life.” She added, “Plus, there was the gratitude... Tony was always grateful. He served in WWII, marched with Martin Luther King Jr., and sang jazz with the greatest singers and players in the world.”

They were friends despite their age gap, and about this Gaga said, “I’ve been grieving the loss of Tony for a long time. We had a very long and powerful goodbye. Though there were 5 decades between us, he was my friend. My real true friend. Our age difference didn’t matter– in fact, it gave us each something neither of us had with most people. We were from two different stages in life entirely — inspired.” And she finally articulated, “Losing Tony to Alzheimer’s has been painful but it was also really beautiful.” And everyone could feel her when she wrote, “I’ll never forget this experience. I’ll never forget Tony Bennett.” With this post, she posted a picture of them hugging which made every Tony Bennett fan shade a tear for this duo.

BLACKPINK's 'DDU-DU DDU-DU' Becomes the First MV to Cross the Mark of 2.1 Billion Views on YouTube

BLACKPINK has hit another milestone with their official music video of 'DDU-DU DDU-DU' crossing the mark of 2.1 billion views on YouTube. On July 30, an announcement by YG Entertainment confirmed that the MV has hit the milestone. This is the first for any K-pop artist or group to hit this achievement. Clearly, the quartet marked its name in the history of K-pop.

'DDU-DU DDU-DU' is one of the most hit numbers by the BLACKPINK which was released at the time when the group was only two years old. The song was released on June 15, 2018, and now, after 5 long years, the song is still buzzing through top charts as well through playlists of fans. On its release, the official music video gained over 36.2 million views within just 24 hours. It was another milestone hit by any K-pop artist before. As it shows, the song and its music video is offering multiple feats of success for the group.

Previously on November 11, 2019, the song 'DDU-DU DDU-DU' crossed the mark of 1 billion views, which was another milestone achieved by any K-pop artist before. On January 4 of this year, the music video gained more than 2 billion views, creating another record.

Not only views but BLACKPINK also became the first ever group to 80 million subscribers on YouTube that happened back in September 2022. By the time of July 2023, this well-renowned girl group earned more than 90 million subscribers and made another record. So, it is safe to say that BLACKPINK is the first ever K-pop group to make so many achievements with a single track.

Controversy with Contract Expiry
BLACKPINK signed a contract with YG Entertainment in August 2016. After all these years, the group is near to expiry of the contract with this entertainment company.

There have been a lot of rumors spreading around that Lisa from the group is leaving YG Entertainment in order to proceed with her solo endeavors. However, YG Entertainment has not offered any affirmation or denial of the fact. The contract renewal for the other group members namely Jisoo, Jennie, and Rosé is disclosed yet. While it is not certain whether BLACKPINK will be working under the entertainment company or not, it is safe to say that; this girl group has become a label itself.

NewJeans' 'Get Up' Leaves Behind 'Barbie' to Become No. 1 on the Billboard 200

As the South Korean girl group NewJeans prepare to celebrate their first year in the music industry, they were greeted with an early present when their second EP, 'Get Up', rocketed to #1 on the Billboard 200 list. The first ever South Korean girl group to have ever achieved this feat was BLACKPINK in September 2022 when their album 'Born Pink' ranked No. 1 on the Billboard 200 less than a year of their entry into the international music industry. The members of the quintuplets group, Minji, Hanni, Danielle, Haerin, and Hyein seem to be riding high at NewJeans' massive success. Recently, one of the members, the 18-year-old Hanni, took to Phoning, NewJeans' fan app, to express her joy and excitement on the achievement of her group. She wrote: "Billboard 200 # 1 ???!! ARE YOU KIDDING ME!!! I don't know how this could happen...Honestly I can't believe the fact that Get Up is there. Didn't hit me yet but I am very happy and relieved that it's there!! Not only for this album, but a lot of people helped and took a lot of time on all our songs so I'm just really happy to know that all of the effort and everyone who participated in creating this amazing album has been recognized!! Bunnies too, it's hard to explain but I think you just know my feelings <3."

Not only does 'Get Up' mark NewJeans' first Billboard 200 No.1, but it is also the group's first ever entry into the list, with tracks "ETA" and "Cool With You" opening at Nos. 81 and 93 respectively on the Billboard Hot 100 list dated August 5, while the lead single "Super Shy" ranked at No. 48. The group will be seen performing at Lollapalooza Chicago on Thursday, which will also be a celebration of their achieving this milestone. Hanni, expressing her elation at being able to perform on an international stage in the U.S.A. for the first time after their album's success, wrote on Phoning: "Now today I'll see a lot of people through the stage and connect through the music with everyone and I'm really gonna enjoy myself!!! To the fullest!!!! LOLLAPALOOZA JUST YOU WAIT!!!! NewJeans is coming~!"

As 'Get Up' made its way to No. 1 on the Billboard 200, the star-cast 'Barbie' soundtrack moved down to No. 2 after an immensely successful week. The latter earned the biggest units for a theatrical film soundtrack in over four years. Like many K-pop albums, the CD edition of 'Get Up' was released in the form of collectible CD packages that came in 3 main versions, available in 14 different iterations, with different covers and packaging customized to the different group members. They all had a set of randomized branded merchandise inside, including photo books, lyric books, and photo cards.

BEYONCÉ PERFORMS IN D.C AFTER FEDEX FIELD ISSUES SHELTER-IN-PLACE ORDER

Concertgoers for Beyoncé's Renaissance World Tour who showed up early and all ready for Sunday's show at FedEx Field in North Englewood, Maryland, neighboring Washington, D.C. were met with terrible weather conditions. The attendees were told to shelter in place due to heavy lightning in the area ahead of showtime. A warning for shelter-in-place was issued at around 6:30 p.m. ET where the news was posted on FedEx Field's official Twitter account instructing fans how to proceed during this terrible weather condition.

The statement said, "Due to lightning in the area, we are currently under a shelter-in-place order. Fans outside of gates and in the parking lots are asked to return to their cars. All fans inside of the stadium are asked to shelter in place under covered concourse areas and ramps until further notice." Then at 8:25 p.m. an update stating "all clear" was posted on the official Twitter page of FedEx Field. The stadium posted, "Fans may return to their seats." This show was the second date at the same venue as Beyoncé's Renaissance World Tour. local reporters and fans who were present at the venue shared clips on social media of the downpour and how concertgoers were taking shelter at the stadium on Saturday night.

Around 50,000 concertgoers were instructed and then forced to huddle together under the stadium's cover as the copious rain poured down and the raging storm was overheard. This caused a delay in the concert's start and as a result, it was announced that the Metro service hours would be extended. This was specifically changed for the tens of thousands of concert attendees who used public transport to reach the venue and then back home. The cost of the extension that was done for the Beyoncé fans cost around $100,000 approximately was covered by the Renaissance World Tour itself.

The show was nothing short of the entertaining night of the year as the fans noted that when Beyoncé performed her "Break My Soul (The Queens Remix)", she continued her name-checks the running list of iconic Black women entertainers in the industry. What surprised everyone was as she took the names of Nina Simone, Erykah Badu, Lizzo, Lauryn Hill, Janet Jackson, Missy Elliot, and Aretha Franklin, among several others, she this time included Lizzo's name again. This came as a surprise as on the tour's stop in Boston on Tuesday, Queen Bey seemed to have switched up the lyrics "Badu, Lizzo, Kelly Row" and repeated "Badu" four times. At that time it seemed as the after-effect of the controversy that is going on surrounding Lizzo.

OLIVIA RODRIGO JUST ANNOUNCED THE RELEASE OF THE 'GUTS' SINGLE 'BAD IDEA RIGHT?'

Disney Star Olivia Rodrigo previously created a huge buzz with the single 'Vampire' and it has officially sunken; she is increasing the hype with a brand new single 'Bad Idea Right?'. This is going to be the second single appearing in her sophomore album, 'Guts'.

On Monday, August 7, the 20-year-old pop star made an Instagram post that confirmed that 'Bad Idea Right?' is releasing this Friday, August 11. She shared a picture that seems like cover art where Rodrigo could be seen posing behind a glass wall; a blurry picture with the title of the track written in red lipstick in front of her face. She also captioned the post, "bad idea right? this friday".

The artist has also shared an email where she wrote that she is "so stoked" to share "Bad Idea Right?" with the fans. Talking about the song she said, "the song is pretty different from vampire & shows another side of GUTS that's a little more fun & playful." Her excitement is visible with her saying, "cannot wait to share it with you alllllll. love to ya always!"

"Bad Idea Right?" is following the success of 'Vampire', the lead single from her sophomore album. The song got released on the last day of June, after the announcement of her upcoming album release on September 8. This rock opera-inspired single debuted at No. 1 on the Billboard Hot 100 which is marking her third song to reach the top of the charts after the previous singles namely "Drivers License" and "Good 4 U" from 'Sour'.

The announcement of the upcoming track came right after a week when Rodrigo revealed the track list for the upcoming album. 'Guts' will be offering listeners a total of 12 tracks, including "Bad Idea Right?" and "Vampire."

'Guts' Tracklist

all american b—h bad idea right?
 vampire
 lacy
 ballad of a homeschooled girl making the bed logical get him back
 love is embarrassing
 the grudge pretty isn't pretty teenage dream
 Get weekly run

Stay tuned to get more updates on this Grammy Winner's upcoming album!

SHA KI RA

returns at the VMA
while winning the iconic Video Vanguard Award.

It is the moment of anticipation and joy with 'Hips Don't Lie' singer Shakira receiving the prestigious Video Vanguard Award at this year's MTV Video Music Awards.

Well, if you are wondering what Shakira, Beyoncé, and Michael Jackson have in common, it was only a Super Bowl halftime show until last week but now Shakira is officially receiving the award by being a part of the Video Vanguard Award recipients club. The stellar pop icon will be receiving the Video Vanguard Award at the MTV Video Music Awards which is all set to take place on September 12, Tuesday at 8 p.m. ET/PT. MTV has announced that she will be also performing a live broadcast for the first time after a long time. The fans went crazy as the last she appeared was back in 2006 when she celebrated the debut of "Hips Don't Lie" along with Wyclef Jean. However, it is not the only one!

The 'Hips Don't Lie' singer has been also nominated for four other awards at this year's MTV Video Music Awards. She was nominated for Artist Of The Year and Best Collaboration for the track 'TQG' with KAROL G and also Best Latin for both the tracks 'Acróstico' and 'TQG'. It is not new but Shakira has always been a part of many Music Awards and at MTV, she has become quite a familiar face. With four wins before and around 30 nominations, her consistency is pretty good!

This 46-year-old pop star previously won the award for International Viewer's Choice in Latin America in 2000 for 'Ojos Así' and also in 2002 for 'Whenever, Wherever/Suerte'. These timeless tracks are still buzzing pretty loud in the playlists of her global fans. Being a seasoned performer, she also received the award for Best Choreography in 2006 for 'Hips Don't Lie'. It is not required to say that Shakira's collaboration with Beyoncé in 2007 for the track 'Beautiful Liar' was one of the most groundbreaking musical projects. When it comes to the most iconic female collaborations, 2014's 'Can't Remember to Forget You' ft. Rihanna does not fall behind.

Shakira is coming back to the stage of the MTV VMAs after 17 long years and undoubtedly, the anticipation is quite high among her fans. Being the first South American Vanguard winner, this is also a proud moment for the artist herself. There will be a total of 15 categories of awards presented at the VMA and the voting poll will be open for everyone until September 1st. Now, all that is left is to witness Shakira's powerpack live performance on the stage!

Hanging out with an Ex late at night is a ‘bad idea right?’ but Olivia Rodrigo flawlessly captures the torment and the drama of being drawn towards an ex-partner.

Meeting a former partner after you had a bash of a night with your friends, might not seem like a great idea but Olivia Rodrigo in her poignant charm manages to deliver a stunning music video exclusive for this not-so-talked-about topic. The banter music video shows not just the torment of being in a situation like this but also talks about behaving silly when you are unreasonably drunk. The magnetic charm of this video flourishes, in its every running minute. And she showcases the dilemma of whether to meet her ex or not.

This music video features some of Rodrigo’s real-life friends Madison Hu, Tate McRae, Iris Apatow, and Petra Collins. And the music video is also directed by Petra Collins, where Olivia Rodrigo is willing to meet her Ex asking relentlessly whether it is a bad idea or not. And being repeatedly warned by everyone she meets on her way to see her Ex warns yes it is a bad idea. But by the end of each stanza, she concludes with “Seeing you tonight it’s a bad idea right? Seeing you tonight f*ck it, it’s fine”.

DAZZLING OLIVIA RODRIGO IS ABOUT TO MEET AN EX, QUESTING RADIANTLY IN HER ‘BAD IDEA RIGHT?’

and of course Collins. From here she shows the urge to meet her former partner knowing well things might go south she embarks upon a journey drenched in rain. She hitchhikes to the place where her ex’s place in this journey she is seen taking a truck, a tube, and a bus to meet her long-lost partner.

Once she meets with her ex initially the sparks of the past notifying the flames they had is engulfing them both. And in the video, her ex, who is seen as a bright man-shaped figure in bed lying down doing nothing almost, not even opening the door. But still, Rodrigo manages to get in somehow. And right after their brief sparkling time together, the darkness of their past came behind the bed in the form of and dreadfully looking spider. And this is where the video ends.

‘Bad Idea Right?’ is one of the releases from her ‘Guts’ set, earlier this year during summer she released the lead single from this album ‘Vampire’. And on the 1st of August Rodrigo disclosed the entire tracklist of this album.

4.8/5

By Daily Music Roll

The video starts with her being at a party with her actual friends Madison Hu, Tate McRae, Iris Apatow,

CHARLIE PUTH'S NEW SINGLE, A SEXY, SEDUCTIVE TRACK 'LIPSTICK' IS OUT NOW

Charlie Puth has released 'Lipstick' an undeniably sensual and alluring track that is the first fresh cut from his imminent studio album, streaming on Spotify.

Charlie Puth is back with his banging productions once again and released a brand new single 'Lipstick'. The track is said to be the lead single from his forthcoming studio album, according to Atlantic Records.

In the song, he collaborated with producers Happy Perez and Pop Wansel and delivered the as usual entertaining vocals that is widely known for. After his brilliantly cohesive third studio album 'CHARLIE', the artist is blowing up everyone's minds with excitement by releasing the lead single from his next venture.

Slipped out at the stroke of midnight, 'Lipstick' was made available for the worldwide Charlie fans to listen to along with the official music video, out on YouTube. The song's production has an old-school groove to it and assures the alluring side of the artist.

With a reputation for creating extremely catchy beats that somehow always end up trending on social media, the singer again showcased that he has got the best formula to create the ultimate pop record.

4.7/5

By Daily Music Roll

After the official release, however, people are really liking the fact that the song does not at all come down as a generic pop hit, but the composition has elements from different genres like R&B as well. One user on Twitter/X wrote, "How does @charlieputh do it?! The snippet of #Lipstick just didn't do it justice! Now I just can't stop singing it! What a vibe! This R&B album is going to be something special! ??". While another one wrote, "LIPSTICK ?? out now ?????? love it @charlieputh #lipstick #OutNow", showing appreciation for the artist.

The lyrics on the track maintained the old-school groove and showed a sexier, sultrier side of the artist who explains his hypnotic love by singing over and being shirtless in the video. Lyrics like "Come and put your lipstick on my neck and my body/Just to show these bitches that you're mine/ Lipstick on my collar show 'em you ain't no hobby/ You're the one who gets it all the time" sounds amazing with the smooth falsetto voice of the singer that he is best known for.

The song is the lead single from his next studio album that is listed as "coming soon." The album is the follow-up of his 2022 release 'CHARLIE' which included worldwide hit singles like 'Light Switch', 'That's Hilarious' and 'Left and Right' with BTS' Jungkook. The album also peaked at no. 10 on the Billboard 200, being his third back-to-back top 10 LP in all genres.

The excellent pop singer, Miley Cyrus has released her latest soundtrack, named 'Used to Be Young', and touched the souls of every pop music enthusiast.

The globally renowned pop singer Miley Cyrus has come up with her later song 'Used to Be Young'. She has been teasing and creating eagerness among her fans for a long time regarding this soundtrack. Before this, Cyrus had given the album 'Endless Summer Vacation' in March. With this new song, she is creating a buzz among every pop music enthusiast.

Cyrus has mesmerized all the listeners with this soundtrack. With the heart-touching lyrics, she has amazed all. Recently, she has also shared the lyrics of the song, which has garnered more ears. The singer stated a few words while talking about the lyrics of the track.

She has said 'These lyrics were written almost 2 years ago at the beginning of my ESV. It was at a time I felt misunderstood. I have spent the last 18 months painting a sonic picture of my perspective to share with you.

The time has arrived to release a song that I could perfect forever. Although my work is done, this song will continue to write itself everyday.

The fact it remains

'USED TO BE YOUNG': THE LATEST SONG HAS BEEN DROPPED BY MILEY CYRUS

4.6/5

By Daily Music Roll

unfinished is a part of its beauty. That is my life at this moment unfinished yet complete'.

She has also added 'This song is about honoring who we've been, loving who we are and celebrating who we will become. I feel proud when reflecting on my past and optimistic when thinking about the future. I am grateful to my loyal fans who make my dreams a reality daily. I am sincerely thankful for the stability of your steadfast support. This song is for you'.

Along with that, she has said 'It's super emotional because I am kind of a mini-me of my mom and I could see her inside of the camera by using a technology where I could livestream with my mom from inside of the camera.

So, we could see each other and as she was dancing it just made me cry, it made me laugh, it brought up so many real emotions and I think it's really letting people into true emotion, which I don't feel we get to see very much these days'.

Selena Gomez has finally made her solo musical comeback with a dance number titled 'Single Soon', and fans just can't get enough of the gorgeous singer.

Selena Gomez is finally back with solo music! After teasing her fans on social media for quite some time, the artist released her comeback solo track 'Single Soon' on Friday. The electric dance number along with an official music video is now available everywhere and the pop star makes it clear that she is, undoubtedly single, and of course ready to mingle! "I'm picking out this dress/ Trying on these shoes/ 'Cause I'll be single soon/ I'll be single soon," Gomez sings on the upbeat and peppy dance number. The track is a celebration that the 31-year-old singer is single, after countless rumors of her being in a relationship with Zayn and other artists. Upon the release, it created a storm on social media as netizens finally saw her in a happy, carefree mood as she danced around in the music video and enjoyed with her girlfriends.

The music video starts with a message that Selena is getting from her half-sister Gracie as she tells her that she loves her and to never worry about boyfriends again. The video progresses to the singer breaking up with her boyfriend and leaving a note for him that says "I'm sorry, I can't. Don't hate me". This note is a direct reference to episode 7 of season 6 of "Sex and the City" which features a scene where Carrie Bradshaw played by Sarah Jessica Parker breaks up with her boyfriend Jack Berger. While leaving the note for her boyfriend to find out later, the singer sings "Should I do it on the phone? / Should I leave a little note in the pocket of his coat? / Maybe I'll just disappear / I don't wanna see a tear / And the weekend's almost here," along with the catchy melody. The music video shows her having fun, wearing a glittery pink dress and high heels, enjoying a girl's night out, and giving a vibe that she can do whatever she wants to now.

'THE QUEEN LEFT NO CRUMBS' - FANS CELEBRATE AS SELENA GOMEZ RELEASES HER COMEBACK SINGLE 'SINGLE SOON'

4.5/5

By Daily Music Roll

At one point Gomez sings "I know I'm a little high maintenance / But I'm worth a try," hinting at her viral TikTok where she told some soccer players that she is single, but a little high maintenance. Over the summer, the singer also poked fun at her relationship status on several TikToks.

Selena is currently seen on the third season of her hit Hulu show 'Only Murders in the Building' with her costars Steve Martin and Martin Short.

This new season also welcomed some other A-listers like Meryl Streep and Paul Rudd.

AR Rahman Speaks On Nepotism In A New Interview, Wishing For His Children To Continue His Legacy

The first Oscar winner in music and worldwide renowned composer AR Rahman has recently opened up about a long debate topic of the country, nepotism. He has expressed his desire for his three children, Khatija, Raheema, and Ameen to prosper in their careers in music and carry out his legacy. In a recent interview with The Hindu, the musician also expressed his concern that if his three children do not carry forward his legacy, all his hard work will lose its purpose. Needless to say, all his three children, especially his son Ameen, and his daughter Khatija are indubitably into music and have done quite a lot of work in recent years.

In the interview, the musician stated, "People nowadays have learnt this new term... nepotism. I have built all this stuff, this entire world; if my kids aren't into it, this entire place is going to become a godown! Every step, every inch of every wall, and every chair in my studio has been selected with so much passion and care, and I hope for them to take over from me in the future." He at the same time emphasized the importance of passing down his legacy to his children as he said, "One thing I was very clear about; whatever money I leave for anyone, it'll disappear in a day if they are not smart enough and don't understand the legacy. I went through so much financial trouble along with my mom and sisters, but those lessons — the burden that I shared with my mom — made me who I am today."

He then continued, "Even now, those experiences help me make grounded decisions. So I really want my children to be aware of everything going on; I don't believe in hiding any bad news or problems from them. I even inform them if I get a loan for a building and the mortgage I'm paying. This is not to torture them, but only to make them learn." The musician is currently working with Mani Ratnam for his new project starring Kamal Haasan. Following this, there are several other Hindi, Tamil, and Telugu films lined up as his upcoming ventures.

AR Rahman's daughter, Khatija has recently showcased her incredible singing talent in the track 'Chinnanjiru (Marumurai)', part of the Tamil version of 'PonniyinSelvan II'. She has also voiced 'MinnanchulaVennelaa (Reprise)' in the Telugu version along with 'MeraAasmaan Jal Gaya (Reprise)' in the Hindi version. His son, Ameen has also sung in 'Never Say Goodbye' from the film DilBechara, and recently in 'Veerane,' from the Tamil movie 'Maamannan'.

DOJA CAT IS ALL SET TO RELEASE HER NEWEST ALBUM 'SCARLET' WITH AN EERIE COVER ART

Doja Cat is ready for her next era, the 'Woman' singer shared the exciting news on her social media. Previously after her very successful 'Planet Her' album, she changed her aesthetics to indicate starting a new era. Now the singer has taken to social media to announce her fourth studio album 'Scarlet' with an exciting cover photo and release date. She has previously released two singles 'Attention' and 'Paint the Town Red' from this project. Her fourth album will be released on September 22nd. On Instagram, Doja shared the cover art of her album which features an "appropriately crimson spider" with the caption that says "SCARLET 9.22," with a spider emoji.

Her comeback single 'Attention' was released in June and peaked the spot of No. 31 on the Billboard Hot 100. Her second single from 'Scarlet' is 'Paint the Town Red' which reached the top 5 of Billboard Hot 100, all thanks to social media as the track went viral on TikTok and Instagram, fueling the streams and sales. The second single also moved to the top on the chart of Hot R&B/Hip-Hop Songs this week. 'Paint the Town Red

' also started at No. 15 on the Billboard Hot 100 which makes it the "highest unaccompanied debut" in Doja Cat's entire career, so far. The singer teased another track, titled 'Demons' that is expected to be released on this Friday, making it the third single of 'Scarlet'.

This era of the singer appears to be the most controversial yet, as she has taken on a new avatar, an eerie one to go with the aesthetics of the album. The cover art of 'Scarlet' features a beastly and grotesque, scarlet-colored spider that is staring down at a drop of blood. Fans are speculating this album and aesthetics are hinting at satanism as well which tampered with Doja's popularity.

Last month, after fleeing her Threads account, the singer reportedly lost 180,000 followers on Instagram where she also criticized her fans in a series of posts. At the same time, on Twitter the artist has also posted a series of tweets fulminating her fans, particularly picking out her fans who call themselves 'kittenz', Doja's fanbase name. This month alone, the singer seemed to have lost around 500,000 followers on Instagram as well. Reacting to the unfollowing spree, Doja responded, "Seeing all these people unfollow makes me feel like I've defeated a large beast that's been holding me down for so long" on an Instagram story.

HYBE And Geffen Records Are Launching A New Girl Group Audition Show Set To Stream On Youtube And Netflix

HYBE Corp. and Geffen Records have announced their 2024 series along with a companion online show. The companion show, 'The Debut: Dream Academy' will start streaming on Thursday. The selection process for their goal has started since November 2021. For the show, there have been over 120,000 submissions across the world. From 120,000 aspiring young females who are willing to be a part of this industry will be narrowed down to only 20 candidates. Not just from Korea these aspirants as from every corner of the world including Thailand, Australia, Argentina, Brazil, the U.S., Sweden, Japan, Belarus, Switzerland, Slovakia, and the Philippines. Fans of the K-pop industry can follow the entire process starting from the contestants to embark on their final stage of audition. The show will start streaming globally on September 1st at 8 a.m., U.S. PDT on YouTube, and will run for 12 weeks. Japanese viewers can stream on the Japanese broadcast channel Abema. The audition program will end in November and afterwards, the streaming channels will go live to carry out their selection announcement. And by the end, the group will also have a name along with their assorted members.

This extensive three-year process of selecting the best upcoming K-pop group by the K-pop giant HYBE Corporation will finally come to an end. And a new journey will begin with a whole new set of extremely talented music and dancing divas. Along with the YouTube show, Netflix also has dived in to make a documentary out of the entire process. This Netflix documentary will be directed by Netflix's Emmy-nominated "Becoming" director Nadia Hallgren.

This untitled series will aim to illustrate the voyage to universal stardom. The series will also depict insights into the extensive training and development procedure that these young ladies will have to go through. On assembling the group, they will be merged into HYBE's fandom platform, Weverse, as well.

Both of them collectively have conveyed, "The one-of-a-kind joint venture marks the first time a major U.S. record label and a K-pop entertainment leader have combined their expertise in artist discovery, and music production to assemble, develop, and introduce an international girl group unlike any other."

According to then the program "represents the first time a U.S.-based, truly global girl group will be created and modeled based on the world-renowned K-pop training and development system."

House Of Blues Music Forward Foundation Hosting Fundraising Events To Celebrate Their 30th Anniversary

Spending most of its time motivating potential artists, The House of Blues Music Forward Foundation is all set to celebrate its 30th Anniversary lavishly. This is a milestone for them and they are making a grand gesture to celebrate their audience with grandeur. This is a nonprofit organization, which comes under Live Nation. Their single motto is to provide scholarships, workforce opportunities, relief funds, and more to the youth and build careers more inclusively.

By far this company has helped over a million lives by providing the aid they required. The summed-up amount is above $42 million which has been used for these needy people. Not just that, they have provided over 1000 mentors to guide and channel their talents in the right direction. Along with Live Nation, they are associated with many other thriving companies Vevo and Citi Bank, as well.

To celebrate their journey of 30 years they have organized a 2-day celebration option for all the attendees who are willing to be a part of this magnificent opulence. On the 1st of October, there will be a Music Forward Brunch at the Hollywood Bowl.

The brunch will honor several people whose motive is to positively inspire society. The brunch will be curated by James Beard alongside Award-Winning chef Suzanne Goin and restaurateur Caroline Styne. Guests can enjoy a hearty meal while enjoying performances from some of Music Forward's alums. In a recent press meet, the President and CEO of Live Nation Entertainment, Michael Rapino said "Live Nation has backed Music Forward since day one, and we congratulate them on 30 years of helping youth discover and build careers in live music.

The industry is growing and diversifying faster than ever, which means there are even more opportunities to support the next generation and we look forward to continuing our work together." On the 2nd of October, there will be the inaugural Celebrity Golf Tournament at the El Caballero County Club in Tarzana, Calif. By the end of this tournament golfers along with sponsors and guests will enjoy dinner, cocktails, and a live performance. You get your hands on the tickets for the events on the official website of the Music Forward Foundation.

TOP 10 MUSIC

SEPTEMBER 2023

Paint The Town Red

Doja Cat

05

Calm Down

Rema & Selena Gomez

06

Fukumean

Gunna

07

Vampire

Olivia Rodrigo

08

Dance The Night

Dua Lipa

09

Barbie World

Nicki Minaj & Ice Spice With Aqua

10

Cruel Summer
Taylor Swift

All thanks to social media, Taylor Swift's 'Cruel Summer' from 'Lover' is back on the charts and this fresh, romantic pop track is this week's number four.

'Last Night'
Morgan Wallen

Morgan Wallen's 'Last Night' is at this week's third spot. It is a beautiful love story about a couple who are spending their last night together.

The second spot is occupied by Luke Combs with his cover of the 1988 hit 'Fast Car' by American singer-songwriter Tracy Chapman. The track is featured in his album 'Gettin' Old'.

01 RICH MEN NORTH OF RICHMOND
Oliver Anthony Music

The number one track on this chart is 'Rich Men North Of Richmond' this time. It is the second week that the song is charting at the top of the Billboard Hot 100. This viral popular track by Oliver Anthony Music debuted with a high number and soon found its place at the top of the charts. This song also makes the artist the first ever in history to occupy the chart numbers with no prior chart history, in any form. The song, written by the artist himself has been named as a "blue-collar anthem" or a "right-wing anthem" or an "everyman anthem" With the help of social media, the song has become the most-streamed and top-selling track as well.

FIND OUT THE TOP 10 PROGRESSIVE ROCK BANDS OF ALL TIME

Progressive rock is a huge part of the rock music. This particular genre has garnered many listeners from all around the world. Progressive rock is an immensely loved genre that has influenced many audiences. There are a lot of bands that have amazed a huge number of listeners. By creating songs in this particular genre, many bands have gained a lot of affirmation from all. Now, let's find out the top 10 progressive rock bands that have never stopped mesmerizing audiences with their songs-10/10

Jethro Tull:

In the late '60s, a progressive rock band was built in England, named Jethro Tull. The lead singer and songwriter Ian Anderson was the pioneer of the band. Along with his singing and writing skills, he has also amazed everyone with his flute-playing skills. Their excellent creations have garnered many worldwide listeners. This band has given songs like 'Aqualung', 'Thick as a Brick', and 'Locomotive Breath'. With these soundtracks, they have churned out the true flavor of the genre in every aspect.

Tool:

The band from Los Angeles, Tool was formed in the '90s. The band was in the industry for 15 years and in this span of time, they have only given four albums. But with these four albums, they have created a buzz among the listeners and added a whole new charm to the progressive rock genre. Along with that, this band also got three Grammy awards. Vocalist Maynard James Keenan was an integral part of the band and his contribution to the band has made it even more enigmatic.

Emerson, Lake & Palmer:

Emerson, Lake & Palmer is another band that has secured a significant place in the list of the best progressive rock bands.

Before forming the band, Keith Emerson and Greg Lake used to be in two different bands in the '60s. Later the '70s, both artists formed the band along with Carl Palmer. ELP was a great band where the listeners were obsessed with Emerson's keyboards. His classical influence has made their creations even more captivating for the listeners. It is their debut album 'Lucky Man' that has assisted them in accumulating much appreciation from everyone.

Coheed and Cambria:

Coheed and Cambria started making progressive rock songs when people assumed that there would be no more songs made in this genre. This band was formed in 1995 but they didn't drop any album until 2002. This band has generated a sensation with their attractive lyricism and intriguing tune. And as they came up with progressive rock songs once again, they got more opportunities to reach out to more listeners in a shorter time span. Their exceptional narrations have created a whole identity in the industry and helped them to gain more attention from everyone.

King Crimson:

King Crimson is a phenomenal band that has brought a huge change to the music industry by making a shift from hard-rock music to moderately soft music. This band came up with their album in 1969 and very that very time they started grabbing everyone's attention. Their innovative creations have garnered many listeners. Along with that, their unique pieces of music have assisted them in creating a whole new image in front of everyone. They have given many songs in this genre and created a buzz among every rock music enthusiast.

Yes

Yes is a progressive rock band from England that has made it to the list of the best progressive rock bands. The singer Jon Anderson has amazed everyone with his exceptional melodies and vocal power. Along with that, it is his high-pitched voice that has churned out the true flavor of the genre to the core. Yes is a band that has also gotten recognition from MTV. It was an exceptional band that earned a place in the MTV era. Their phenomenal creations were not only a big hit in the '80s but they are still cherished by everyone.

Dream Theater:

In the world of the progressive rock genre, Dream Theater is a brilliant band that has made its mark in the most excellent way. This Boston-based band exceptionally made their space in the '90s and established themselves in the music industry. The guitarist John Petrucci and bassist John Myung was an integral part of the band. They have amazed everyone with the innovative tune. This band knew how to use soft music in their progressive rock songs and this is how they showed their charm to all the music lovers. It is their outstanding way of presenting the songs that have made the band prog rock royalty.

Genesis:

Genesis is a band whose lead singer used to be Phill Collins. But after a few years, Collins became the drummer of the band and Peter Dinklage became the lead singer. It was the time when this band made their impact on the progressive rock music genre. The swift shift to the genre has helped Gabriel to show his talent to everyone and lead the band. This prolific band is an exceptional group, which has offered a lot to the world of music.

Rush:

Rush is a progressive rock band, which has been built with only three male musicians. It is a Canadian trio that has amazed global listeners with its charming set of music. The three artists of the band, Geddy Lee, Alex Lifeson, and Neil Peart, all of them are immensely talented. Their unique talents have made their songs even more interesting. This band has received a huge appreciation from all, which has led them to achieve Rock and Roll Hall of Fame. This band has also achieved huge recognition from everyone with their fascinating music and well-versed lyricism.

Pink Floyd:

Pink Floyd is a band that has literally ruled the world of rock music. This band started off in the '60s and became one of the most famous bands of all time. From the very beginning, they have gotten much recognition from all music enthusiasts. This band has given two albums in the '70s, named 'The Dark Side of the Moon' and 'The Wall', and acquired maximum exposure. After that, this band achieved even more success in the '80s with their exceptional pieces of music. And that is what helped them to become the best progressive rock band of all time.

These are the top 10 best progressive rock music bands. All of them have enriched the music genre in their own different way and gained a lot of success. They have really churned out the flavor of the genre and astonished all the listeners. Apart from them, there are many other bands who have flourished their career in this specific genre. Some of them are – Porcupine Tree, The Moody Blues, Frank Zappa, Electric Light Orchestra, and The Alan Parsons Project.

NICKY MINAJ TAKES A MINUTE TO TEASE HER ALL-NEW SINGLE 'LAST TIME I SAW YOU'

The Nicky fans enjoyed the moment when the 'Pink Friday' rapper shared a minute-long snippet of her brand new record 'Last Time I Saw You'. She shared the video via TikTok and it quickly went viral through social media on Monday afternoon.

Through the video snippet, the rapper could be seen embracing her tight bars of grizzly rapping while a pop-centric ambiance revolves around her. With her singing prowess, she sings, "Beggin me to stay and then you walk away/ There's something that you wanted to say/ I was in a rush and you say you were crushed/ But I said I'd be back, it's OK." Evidently, the video was short but the impact is long-lasting.

Previously, the track 'Last Time I Saw You' was teased on Instagram Live earlier this month.

The fans were quite excited and showed their eagerness for this upcoming music project. Flattered by the fans' response and approval, Nicky Minaj said on X (formerly known as Twitter), "Glad you like the lyrics. The irony is that my fave part of the whole song is the very end... like the last 30 seconds. can't wait for you guys to hear the whole thing."

Throughout the whole Summer, the queen of rap has been keeping her fans updated with the status of her 'Pink Friday' sequel which is releasing soon. The music project is scheduled to be dropped this November, and anticipation is high among the fans for what their favorite rapper has kept a secret in this fifth studio album. Last month, Nicky tweeted "Yesterday I worked on my current TOP 2 songs off", referring to 'Pink Friday 2'. She further added, "The eargasms that y'all are about to have. Ooohhhh chiiiiii huntyyyyy don't make dat serveeeee."

'Pink Friday 2' will be the first ever studio album after her last music project in 2018, titled 'Queen'. The that album, the 'Anaconda' rapper worked with "Chun Li," "Good Form" and "Barbie Dreams." 'Pink Friday 2' is all set to drop on November 17, 2023.

<https://www.instagram.com/reel/Cwf6kZbJ2bU/>
In an interview with the Elle, Nickey said, "It's probably the most excited I've been about an album release in a really long time. I'm happy that we're not making my fans wait for another album like I've done in the past." Now, it is time to see whether this long-awaited album is worth the anticipation or not. Stay tuned to find out more!

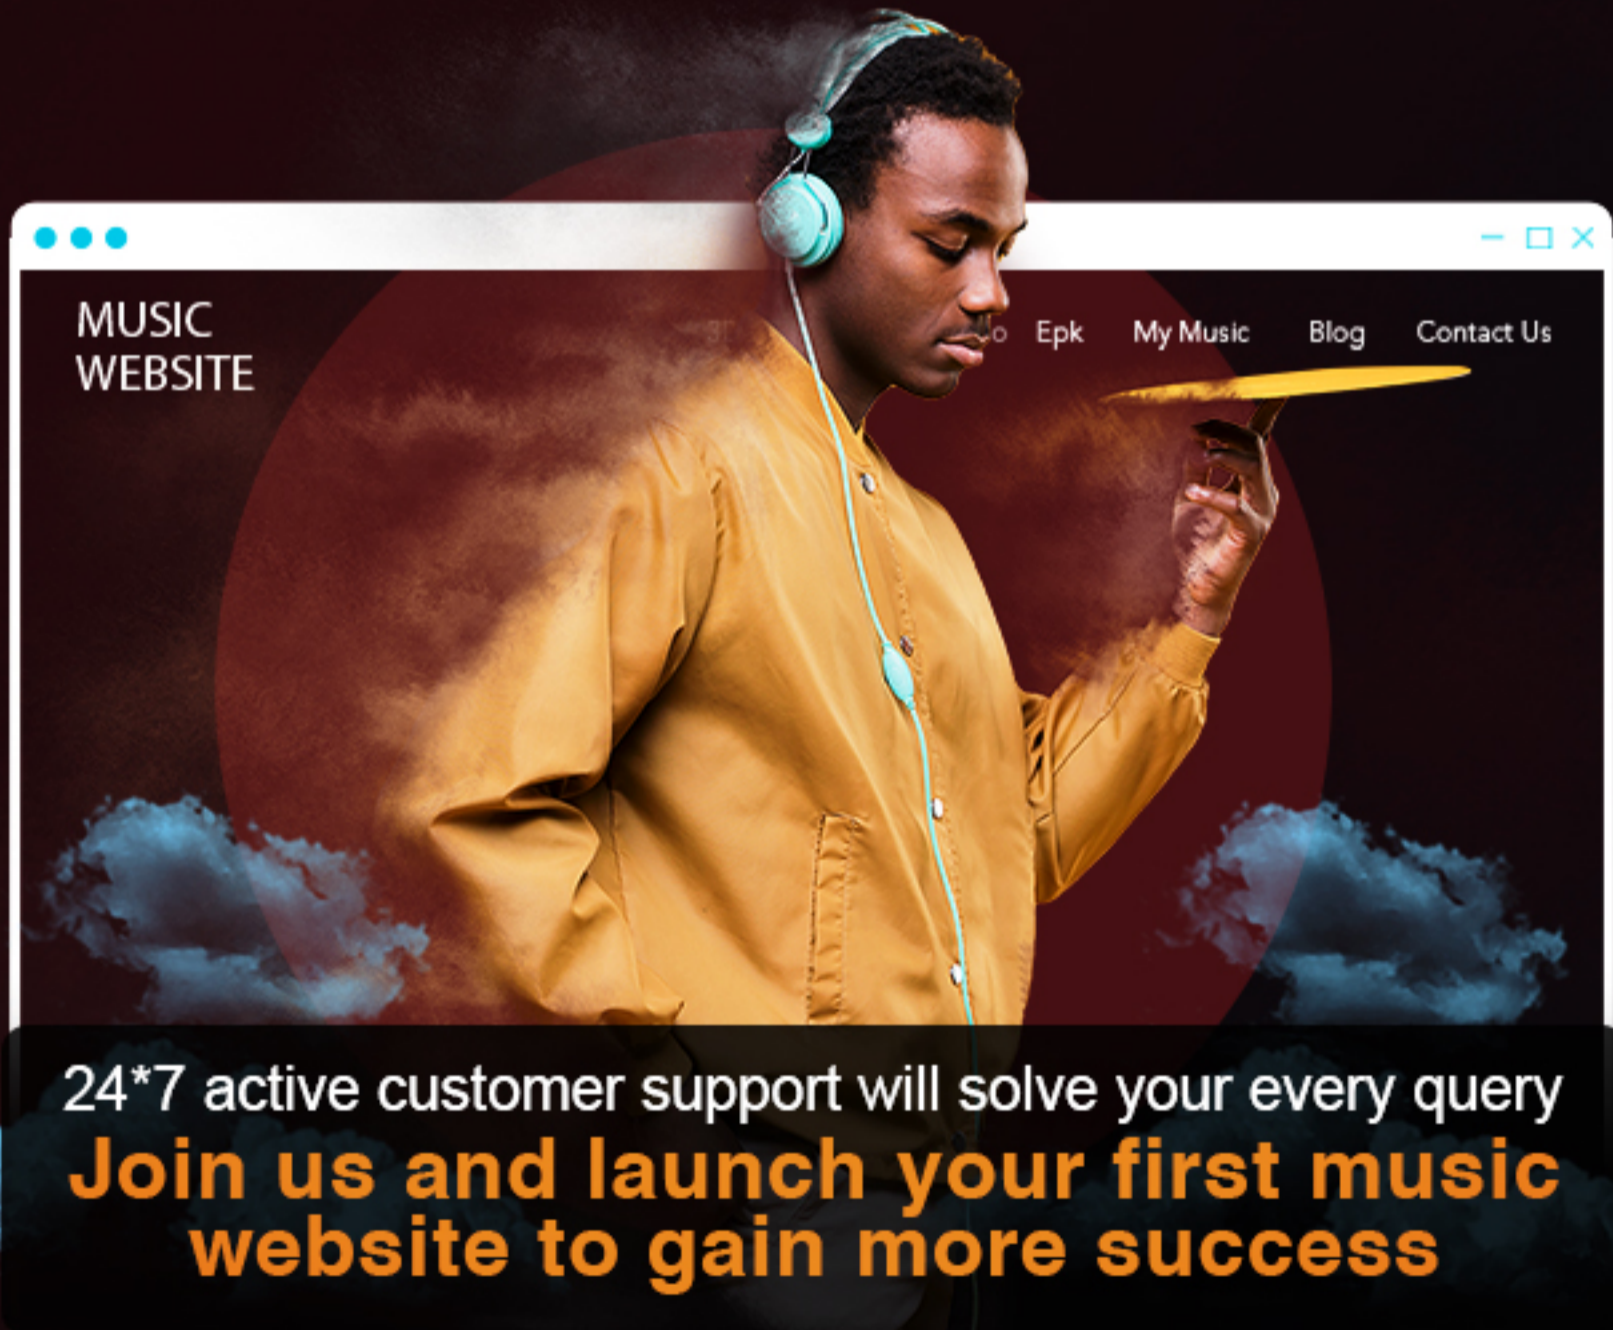

The skilled and dedicated workforce of the agency can help you to create a customized website for your musical career, helping you showcase your music more professionally

We thrive to promote the musical talents around the world by providing them with the best solutions

WE PROVIDED VARIOUS SERVICES FOR

- Professional website development for music artists
- EPK – Electronic Press Kit for music promotion
- Creative content and slideshows based on a music video
- 3D Video Music Intro for every Musician

MUSIC WEBSITE

Epk My Music Blog Contact Us

24*7 active customer support will solve your every query

Join us and launch your first music website to gain more success

The Grammy-Winning Singer, Ariana Grande Continues Her Celebration Of The 10th Anniversary Of 'Yours Truly'

American songwriter and singer Ariana Grande treats her fans with a week-long celebration of the 10th anniversary of her debut album 'Yours Truly'. Fans are overjoyed. An influential figure in the music industry Ariana Grande is making her fans overwhelmed and excited from all over the world by continuing the week-long celebration of 'Yours Truly' which was released long back on 30th August 2013. She intrigued her fans a few weeks ago with a part of a live performance and assured her fans that there will be a celebration for her debut album completing 10 years in the music industry successfully.

Pop-icon is treating the fans with a week-long celebration consisting of brand-new live performances. Fans are cherishing every second of their favorite singer's celebration. Grande recorded a live version of 'Baby I' in London. Ariana Grande released her recording on Sunday, the 27th where she is seen singing alongside a mini orchestra and a full band. Grande mentions that she wants her album 'Baby I' to get the essence of the early 90's music videos. The audiences are really happy to get the vibe of breeziness from the clip of 'Baby I'. It is a visual treat to see the singer grooving on well-choreographed moves wearing all white and sporting in front of a wall full of graffiti art.

Fans are highly contented to experience the power-packed performances from the ongoing celebration of 'Yours Truly'. There will be 'Tattooed Heart' and 'Right There' which will be performed on coming Tuesday.

'The Way' is scheduled to be performed on the very next day, the 30th of August. The award-winning singer impressed her fans by recording a Q&A video on TikTok where she answered various questions from her fans. She also shared a sneak of her excitement by sharing to her official Instagram handle where she wrote, "Happy tenth anniversary to a project that changed my life. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for listeni ng and for growing with me every step of the way. Love you always. :)" She shared the news of her surprise treat first on her Instagram account as well on 19th August where she posted a real list of performances that took the internet by storm and fans could not be patient enough to experience the much-awaited musical treat.

The soundtracks have already been released as a part of the anniversary edition of 'Yours Truly'. Grande also uploaded her tracks on YouTube and fans are convinced that the American singer gave a subtle tribute to her collaborator and ex-lover Miller. Fans are ready to enjoy the upcoming treats from the anniversary celebration.

The Viral Security Guard from Taylor Swift's 'Eras Tour' Got Fired

From Taylor Swift's 'Eras Tour' in Minneapolis, a security guard named Calvin Denker has been fired as he was found singing along with the singer in a video.

A security guard from Taylor Swift's 'Eras Tour' concert in Minneapolis got fired as he was singing along with Taylor. The security guard was found singing the famous song 'Cruel Summer'. Calvin Denker, the security guard was recorded while he was singing the song with his eyes closed. The concert was held on the US Bank Stadium stage in Minnesota in June.

Currently, it is coming to know that Calvin was fired shortly after his video went viral on TikTok. In a brief period of time, he gathered more than 3 million views on his video. Apart from singing along with Taylor, he also wanted to get a picture with Taylor as it was literally an once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. For that reason, he requested a concertgoer to click a picture of him. As he was a security guard, he wasn't allowed to use his phone and turn back to the crowd. For that reason, he requested to click a picture of him.

In this concert, Taylor performed for a straight three hours and thirty minutes. Along with that, Taylor sang a total of 44 songs in the show, which was really mesmerizing for everyone. In another TikTok video, he said that he got the opportunity to work in the Best Crowd Management as a security guard.

He also stated 'So I handed out these little pieces of paper that said I wasn't allowed to have my phone out, but if Taylor Swift comes right behind me, please take a photo of me and text it to my number' and gave that piece of paper 'to a couple people in the front row'.

Later that, Calvin said that he received a few photos from the concert but he also got a call from the Best Crowd Management. The authority said that they fired him for violating the company rules and policy. But they didn't give him any concrete reason for firing him.

The only thing he asked for was a photo, which he didn't even click. He also said 'I never took my own phone out and above all else I made sure Taylor Swift was safe and all fans had a good time'. After he got fired, he didn't get any support from anyone but many fans have advised him to sue the company for firing him inappropriately.

JONAS BROTHERS WIN HEARTS ONCE AGAIN AS THEY DEDICATE 'LITTLE BIRD' TO A FAN'S LATE CHILD

In a new show in Toronto, Jonas Brothers dedicate their famous track 'Little Bird' to Valentina, a fan's late child after reading the sign that said so.

In Saturday Night's event in Toronto, Jonas Brothers performed 'Little Bird' for a fan's late "angel in heaven". The track is featured on the band's latest album, 'The Album' by Jonas Brothers, and reached the No. 3 spot on the Billboard 200 albums chart, in May. On Saturday while performing in one of the most beloved cities in the world, Joe Jonas suddenly noticed a sign that read "Dedicate Little Bird for My Angel in Heaven" at the Rogers Centre. He then brought the emotional mother toward the stage who was holding the sign to have a conversation with her. It is then that the singer asked for the child's name and proceeded to dedicate the song to Valentina.

After noticing the sign in the audience, Joe Jonas paused for a moment to speak to the mother who was from Mexico City, and ask her to reveal her "Little Bird's name. In the conversation, the artist said, "I got choked up as I read the sign" as he then asked Magda, the fan with the sign, to say her daughter's name. Joe asked Magda "What is your little bird's name?" who then replied "Valentina". This made Kevin Jonas, the third member of the Jonas Brothers group place a hand on his chest and become visibly emotional as he also has a six-year-old named Valentina. Joe Jonas then proceeded to give the fan a big hug and said, "This is for Valentina, okay? That's for sure with us tonight."

Another shared video on social media of this event shows Joe singing "Little Bird" which was originally written for their respective daughters. As the camera pans to Kevin, he was seen wiping off his tears while strumming his guitar for the acoustic performance. Then Joe Jonas was also seen crying as he and his brother Nick Jonas continued with the chorus.

All three of the Jonas Brothers, Kevin, Joe, and Nick are parents to beautiful children. However, Magda talking about Valentina has visibly upset Kevin the most as he and his wife Danielle are parents to a beautiful girl named Valentina along with the other 9-year-old Alena. In May, Kevin also shared a sweet TikTok of Valentina saying that her favorite track from 'The Album' is definitely "Little Bird" as the track is "about us." Joe Jonas and his wife, Sophie Turner have also become parents to two little girls. Similarly, Nick Jonas and his wife Priyanka Chopra are also proud parents to Malti, who has just turned 1.

VICTORIA MONÉT'S NEW ALBUM 'JAGUAR II' IS SET TO MOVE THE MASSES

After spending a decade of hit-making for other musicians, the Monét is all set to create her rapping game a level higher with her own rewards. Get ready to be thrilled.

Being well-versed in the notion of hard work, Victoria Monét is known as a hit-maker and a brilliant performer. Spending endless hours in the behind-the-scenes prospects, she has honed her skills to make songs that draw the attention of many music lovers. Her timeless songs, videos, and live shows are truly inspiring, creative, and luxuriant to witness. As a child, she love to rehearse and would practice for hours in her room. From every picture she drew, she made sure everything is in the correct proportion and only after that she would present that picture to her mother.

This ravenous side of her has pushed her to become the best in every field she trades on. Her motif of meticulous precision is truly amazing that have given us some exquisite number in the past years. And now, as she is working on her 'JAGUAR II' musical motif, her fans are overjoyed and extremely excited. The first installment of her musical trilogy was released in February 2020. For now, as 'JAGUAR II' is dated to launch on August 25th, after three solid years, she admits, "I still feel like I'm on the prowl and inching towards something."

Despite the striking response the JAGUAR franchise got for its first installment, the melodies, and the visuals are still vivid and fresh. Though, the pandemic is sole to be blamed for her tour being canceled. But this time she is prepared to tour for two of her releases after this album sets free for the masses. She is willing to make it up to her fans, she said, "I'm excited to finally do that," adding more, "2020 kind of robbed us musicians, specifically—really, just entertainers too—from touching our people and seeing the people who support us and hugging them and, you know, saying thank you in person."

About her upcoming release, she says, "I created JAGUAR II as a continuation of all the love my EP JAGUAR received. I wanted to expand on the meaning, essence, and definition behind the original album." She continued, "We Might Even Be Falling in Love (Interlude)." Previously, 'Experience', 'Moment', and 'Ass Like That', have left her audience in a completely awestruck situation. Hopefully, her signature element, the horn section will be a part of this album as well. Her fans can't wait to witness more of her rich and layered soundscapes in her upcoming releases.

V FROM BTS HAS COME UP WITH HIS SOLO DEBUT, RELEASED ON SEPTEMBER 8

BTS' V has just embarked on his solo music adventure and it is time to explore more about his upcoming debut album 'Layover', which will be released on September 8.

It is time for the ARMY to go crazy again with BTS' V being all set to drop his solo debut album 'Layover'. According to the statement by BTS agency BigHit Music, the album is scheduled to be released on September 8 at 1 pm KST (9.30 am IST). Fans are going gaga with the track list being revealed. There will be a total of six tracks. He joined forces with NewJean's producer Min Hee Jin for the project.

'Layover' Track List

Rainy Days
 Blue
 Love Me Again
 Slow Dancing
 For Us
 Slow dancing (Piano Version)

As the statement goes, "Hello. This is BigHit Music. We are excited to share more details about the release of BTS member V's solo album Layover. Layover consists of six tracks in total - five tracks and a bonus track. To fully appreciate the album's flow, we recommend listening to it in sequence from start to finish."

According to the statement, 'Rainy Days' will be offering a blend of white noises and the sound of rain that is neatly woven with V's magical voice. Surely, it will stir the deeper emotions of the listeners. The next track 'Blue' is an amalgamation of old-school R&B and modern musical grooves that adds a creative layer to the track. There is 'Love Me Again' to offer an alluring romantic essence along with some soothing R&B vibes. Listeners will also witness V's signature baritone in this song.

'Slow Dancing' deserves a special mention as it is the main focus of the whole project. This song is comprised of '70s romantic soul style along with a laid-back essence which offers a free-spirited feeling, creating a mood for slow dancing just like the title suggests. The bonus track of the album is a soul-soothing piano version of this track, slightly different from the original yet similarly alluring.

Last but not least, there is 'For Us' to offer a captivating soundscape of pop and R&B along with an intriguing lyrical approach. The song serves as an epilogue that can envelop listeners with thought-provoking and unique lyrics.

While the other members of BTS have already embarked on their solo endeavors, V is creating a buzz again in the scene with this latest project. V was recently found sharing a picture on Instagram of his album boxes resting on stairs and he said, "I'm sending them to every house with the desire I want to deliver them to you."

Hozier Announces the Release of 'Unreal Unearth'

The Irish singer-songwriter Hozier is set to release his new album 'Unreal Unearth', based on Dante's 14th-century literary piece 'Inferno', on August 18th.

After attaining a No.1 rank in the US with 'Wasteland, Baby!', the Irish singer-songwriter Hozier is on his way to winning over the hearts of his listeners with his upcoming new album 'Unreal Unearth'. The singer took to Twitter on May 17, 2023, to announce the exciting news, along with a picture of the album cover: Hozier's mouth, and a flower between his teeth peeping through the soil. The post read: "My new album #UnrealUnearth will find its way to you on August 18th.

I'm proud of this record and enjoyed watching it come to life over the past year. Thank you as always for your support and patience while it was coming to fruition.

He also shared the link to pre-order the album under the caption, much to the delight of his fans, who showered the post with positive comments like: "A beacon of joy from the underworld - will be using the time until then to prepare myself mentally and emotionally." and "thank you king".

My new album #UnrealUnearth will find its way to you on August 18th.

I'm proud of this record and enjoyed watching it come to life over the past year.

So far, the album is expected to comprise 16 songs, including singles like "Eat Your Young" (Released: 17 March 2023), "Francesca" (Released: 19 May 2023), "Unknown / Nth" (Released: 23 June 2023), and "De Selby (Part 2)" (Released: 21 July 2023). The artist revealed that the inspiration for 'Unreal Unearth' lay in 14th-century Italian writer Dante Alighieri's idea of the Nine Circles of Hell, found in Inferno, which is the first part of his epic poem 'Divine Comedy'.

Speaking about his upcoming project, the singer said: "The album is quite eclectic and there's something of a retrospective in what the sounds lean into. There's some moments that are a bit more old school and stuff that's Nineties grunge sounding too.

For other moments we were leaning into playing with a lot of synthesizers."

The 'The Parting Glass' singer is set to begin a major tour, kick-starting in Glasgow in June and stopping off at six spots across the country. The UK leg of the tour is to round off by the end of July at London's Alexandra Palace, after which it would move to the US and would continue touring until the end of November, with 24 shows scheduled in the country.

'Eat Your Young' dropped ten years after the release of his first EP 'Take Me to Church', which peaked at number two on the Billboard 100 list and was the stepping stone to his international fame.

NU-METAL ELDERS STILL GOT THEIR ZEST: LIMP BIZKIT IS ROCKING THE PARTY LIKE THEY DID IN 1999

The popularity of Limp Bizkit peaked when the Netflix series Trainwreck: Woodstock '99 came out and Fred Durst and co's irresistibly performed their pounding rebel anthem.

For every nu-metal fan, the night at the Calder Valley market hall was terrifyingly charming. Limp Bizkit allegedly rocked The Piece Hall to its very foundations with his highly engaging performance at their historic Halifax venue. The incredible Florida rap rockers delivered a sensational concert including some of their old and some of their fresh releases. Delivering My Generation, 1999, Rollin' (Air Raid Vehicle), Hot Dog, Pill Popper, Take A Look Around, Dad Vibes, and Nookie before they performed their show-stopping anthem Break Stuff.

The show was completely sold out with 5,500 dancing and cheering with their performances. Their frontman Fred Durst said, "What an incredible vibe right here - this might just be my new favorite spot! You are on fire tonight!" for the incredibly enthusiastic crowd of the show.

While Durst was performing his fresh rendition of "Yorkshire, Yorkshire" dedicating another cover of the classic 'The Who's'. Right after that, they performed their all-time incredibly popular track Behind Blue Eyes to the White Rose County. Joey Valence & Brae and Kenny Hoopla supported the performance of Limp Bizkit for the night.

The Limp Bizkit established in 1995 is popular from their 1971 track and with time their music has grown and offered some extremely compelling works.

The legacy that has started in 1994 and still makes a buzzing effect whenever they perform. The band has three Grammy nominations that they have sold over 40 million records worldwide. They delivered over 20 chart-busting numbers. And once the band became a part of Netflix's Trainwreck: Woodstock 99, the carnage of the doomed show ushered in their timeless popularity back.

In 2000, the Jacksonville quintet's third album, Chocolate Starfish and the Hot Dog Flavored Water made history by becoming one of the biggest bands in the history of music. And Fred Durst was always a controversial soul with numerous not-so-ideal incidents. And their presence at the Piece Hall with puns like, "All drinks are free for the next 45 seconds but water's $10."

The groundbreaking summer sensation of The Piece Hall series of Live concerts is still on and probably be continuing on 22nd August. On that day, the boygenius would play the first of their two sell-out nights. Following that performance, the electronic music legends Orbital will perform on August 25th.

And on August 26th The Charlatans and Johnny Marr will take the stage.

The 2023 Reading Festival Is Enhanced Even More With A Handful Of Amazing Performances

Performers are delivering their powerful performances and setting the stage on fire at this year's Reading Festival. Sensational performances are on the top news. Reading Festival is one of the biggest music festivals in the music industry. It is happening for three days, starting from 25th August and the celebration will continue to 27th August at Richfield Avenue. The audiences are looking forward to the remaining days of the festival as they enjoyed all the performances which already made it to the main stage. Metal, Rock, rap, pop, and dance are being represented at this dual-site event.

Popular bands like Yard Act, Mimi Webb, Wet Leg, Loyle Corner have already given their power-pact performances on 25th August at Main Stage East. Foals, Bicep, Sea Girls performed on the very same day at Main Stage West. The crowd enjoyed all the performances throughout and expected more fun from the upcoming ones. Even nature could not make the fans stay away from their heartthrobs.

The rain could not lower the spirits across the Reading Site yesterday.

Foals frontman Yannis Philippakis assures the audience 'We're gonna have a fucking great night tonight, Reading,' and then launched thrilling 'Olympic Airways'. Foals gave absolutely everything to the crowd and entertained them throughout their performance. The Oxford band set the vibe high of the concert. The band shook the stage while performing.

Philippakis also mentioned "It's the end of the summer, but it's the start of your life,"

They played
 'Wake Me Up'
 'Mountain at My Gates'
 'Olympic Airways'
 '2001'
 '(Summer Sky)'
 'My Number'
 '2am'
 'In Degrees'
 'Spanish Sahara'
 'Red Socks Pugie'
 'Milk & Black Spiders'
 'The Runner'

'Inhaler'
 'Black Bull'
 'What Went Down'

'Two Steps, Twice'

Loyle Carner's sunset slot was an emotional ride for the crowd. The London rapper shared some insightful information with his fans, he talked about fatherhood and friendship in his life. His performance left no dry eye in the crowd. But the smile on his face of Loyle brightens the vibe.

On the very last day of the festival, there are hit bands like Imagine Dragons, Hot Milk, and The Snuts who will be present to tear the stage up with their majestic performances on the Main Stage West. Fans cannot wait any longer to experience the joy ride at the concert. Overall, the very popular Reading Festival is breaking the heights of celebration of music and entertainment.

Fans are going to carry the essence with them for a long time until next time.

Drake's Humble Request 'Keep Your Bras On' With Respect To His Son's First Show

Superstar Drake had a very simple request for the crowd, precisely his fans the LA who were attending the concert on Saturday, Aug 12. The request was nothing but, "Y'all keep your bras on."

While the rapper visited the Kia Forum in Inglewood, California; the 36-year-old Toronto MC asked to the concert-hoppers not to throw their inner wears and keep things innocent with respect to his 5-year-old son. It was part of his All a Blur Tour, and this is the first time Adonis Graham, Drake's son attended his show.

Drake told the audience, "Look, to be honest with you, I can't talk about ties tonight in L.A. because my son is at the show for the first time." He further said, "So we've got to keep this real PG tonight. Y'all keep your bras on." It was a humble request from a dad for his sons and his fans can not do anything but listen to him.

In the recent tours of Drake, Bra-throwing has become a popular and regular occurrence. It started back in early July at Chicago's United Center. While his performance was going at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, N.Y. on July 21st, the 'Rich Flex' received quite a large bra thrown at him onstage. Immediately inspecting the undergarment, he said, "36G?" and ordered, "Locate this woman immediately."

Later on, the person who threw her bra was located and identified indeed who is known as Veronica Correia on TikTok. It was found that later she got an offer to appear for the Playboy. Prior to the Saturday show at Kia Forum show, Drake managed to squeeze out a little time out of his busy schedule to share an intimate moment with his son.

On Social media, a photo got viral in the afternoon when Drizzy posted a cute photo of him working on his son Adonis' braided hair which is a quote from former NBA star Allen Iverson. This father-son relationship is creating quite a buzz on the internet, and the request for "No bras" was truly epic!

Drake captioned the photo "Just because you put a guy in a tuxedo doesn't make him a good guy,"

Music Promotion

Choose the marketing deals to start your campaign
Let us promote your videos amongst an authentic audience base
We guarantee 100% real promotion with active followers

WHAT DO WE OFFER?

GET ASSOCIATED WITH
GOOGLE DISPLAY ADS

CONTENT CAMPAIGN BY SHARING BLOGS, PRS
AND REVIEWS

SOCIAL MEDIA PROMOTION AND FOLLOW-UPS

GET ACTIVE VIEWERS
WITHIN A SHORT TIMEFRAME

Need help with promotions?
www.musicpromotion.club/youtube info@musicpromotion.club

Daily Music Roll is an online music magazine specializing in publishing music blogs, artist interviews, music news and music reviews

Subscribe to our Digital Magazine for free

We believe in providing great opportunities for the upcoming artists and those who are trying to make a career out of it by giving them valuable spotlight and promotion

ONE OF THE TRUSTWORTHY ONLINE MUSIC MAGAZINE TO CONNECT YOU WITH A THOUSAND OF READERS

Are you ready to get featured in daily Music Roll?

Contact us at info@dailymusicroll.com